THANKS.
We take this manner of announcing our many friends that we are indebted to them for a prosperous year of trade and business relations—in fact we feel proud to say that the past year can be looked upon as altogether successful in every position, and we feel that we owe our success to the many friends and patrons who have made our business what it has been. We look over the past with a great amount of pleasure and in appreciation know we would do differently. Who can say they would not if the past could be recalled? Wishing everybody the coming year a prosperous and happy life. We are your friends,
