DETROIT, WIS. TO SAY TO THE CITIZENS OF THIS CITY AND VICINITY, that he has opened a barber shop at the corner of Third and Chestnut streets, and is prepared to do first class work in every respect. Give him a call and judge for yourself.

An entertainment will be given by the Detroit Young People's Society, Friday evening, November 27, 1891, at Mr. Harrison Hamilton's, in this village. The following is the program:

Music, instrumental.
 Miss Jennie Peck, Mr. G. H. Mitchell.
 Recitation—"The Blacksmith's Story."
 Mrs. Curtis, reciter.
 Exercises by the reciter class.
 Mrs. Curtis, leader.

The operations then in process being carried out. The second and last paper, which appears in the December Constitution, is a paper which has been prepared by the committee on the part of the members of the Detroit Young People's Society, and is a very interesting paper of his own and a great number of sketches which he made at the time. It is a very interesting paper, and is a very good one. It is a very good one. It is a very good one.
