

STURPIGS

"Good night," the gentleman bowed and left. His lady's hand was on his arm. "You are not going to bed, are you?" "No, my dear, I am not going to bed. I am going to bed with you. I am going to bed with you. I am going to bed with you."

But he had not yet pressed her hand. "I am going to bed with you. I am going to bed with you. I am going to bed with you."

And she had not yet kissed him. "I am going to bed with you. I am going to bed with you. I am going to bed with you."

"German Syrup"

Those who have not used Boesche's German Syrup for some severe and chronic trouble of the Throat and Lungs, will appreciate what a truly wonderful medicine it is. The delicious sensations of healing, clearing, strength-gathering and recovery are unknown joys. For German Syrup we do not ask any cases. Sugar and water may ease the throat or stop a cough for a while. This is as far as the ordinary cough medicine goes. Boesche's German Syrup is a discovery, a great find. For Throat and Lung Specialty. Where for years there have been sensitiveness, pain, coughing, spitting, hemorrhage, voice failure, weakness, slipping down hill, where doctors and medicine and advice have been swallowing and followed to the point of despair, where there is the conviction that all is over and the end is inevitable, there we place German Syrup. It cures. You are a live man yet if you take it.
