Children's Day will be observed at the M. E church next Sunday and the exercises will consist of recitations and musical exercises by the children.

At last we are to have a real live meat shop at the Beaver, where the famishing multitude can get beefsteak at the regulation price per pound. We are cordially informed that Mason Leonard has made arrangements to open a first-class meat market at S. L. Robbins' store, where there is a good refrigerator and plenty of ice, and that the smiling countenance of Phil Schlaack will be seen behind the counter. Well, Phil can cut beefsteak off the neck or ribs equal to any of them. Mason has some 10 or 20 head of fine beef cattle here ready for the axe.

We accepted the kind invitation of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Gibbs and attended the Childrens' Day exercises at the Birmingham Grange last Saturday afternoon, and being our first introduction to the grangers' sanctum sanctorum, we were as usual somewhat embarrassed, but the feeling wore away and it has seldom been our good fortune to enjoy ourselves as we did upon that occasion. The children large and small did splendidly and reflected credit on their tutors. Of course we enjoyed the supper, we always do, and shall endeavor in the future to cultivate the grangers more closely, for we have learned by experience that the farmers and their wives not only know how to make their farms productive, but that they also understand the more difficult art of entertaining, for we were certainly entertained right royally.

Rev. Jas McCracken, of Southfield, offers his farm for sale and a right good piece of property it is, too. This farm has a good house, with fine etc., and described as follows: East half of the southeast quarter of section 36, town 2 S. range 10 E., less 10 acres; containing nearly 70 acres. The farm is 5 of a mile north of Erb's Mill, 3½ miles southwest of Birmingham, with ample buildings in good order with never failing spring stream near the buildings; a good young orchard. Will be sold at its value. Call on Whitehead & Mitchell or the owner, on the premises, Jas. McCracken.

Terms of Sale

(Show this to your Customers.)

"Please deliver at my residence, from your Nurseries, ... the varieties and quantities of stock named (NO SUBSTITUTION TO BE MADE). * * * All stock to be of your first-class grade and to be delivered in a healthy condition."

The above is a part of the order-blank which our customers sign in ordering stock from us, and this shows the fair terms under which they are to receive stock from our Nurseries: for if we fail to deliver as per terms of this order, of course they are released from their obligation to pay. But stock must be as ordered, if we want our pay. Notice that we agree not to substitute. Many firms have a clause in their order-blank giving them the right to substitute other kinds, in case they have not the kinds selected by customers. This is not fair to the customer, and customers buying under such terms are not sure as to the varieties that they will receive. There is much complaint in regard to this; but all ordering buying from us will have no cause for complaint, as the stock will be exactly what they order in each and every case.

THE BEE-HIVE,

Near Court House, Pontiac, Mich.

TO THE PUBLIC:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—We have had this season the cream of the Carpet Trade of this city. We have in fact, had it for years, but this season more pronouncedly and in a more marked degree than ever before. Although on the boards since April 1st our great sale has only just been heard of by some, and many from the adjoining townships and neighboring counties are now visiting us and purchasing their and meanwhile we have enough on hand to supply all your wants, therefore we ask you all to continue to come to the Old Reliable Bee-Hive and make your spring and summer purchases of Dry Goods in all our well known lines, thus taking advantage of our great sale to get same at the CUT and SACRIFICE PRICES incident to this sale. Our store is open during all business hours and our stock has all been obtained from the leading jobbers, importers and manufacturers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia and the other principal markets and business centers of the east, all our carpets coming to us directly from the mills, thus doing entirely away with agents' profits. Do not be deceived, but examine well the qualities of the goods you buy; that is the main point of our argument, as the Bee Hive never has in any manner dealt in shoddy goods and we are in every way up to the times and at it believe as everyone knows one has to who lets the people know where to trade, what to get and how to buy good goods for a little money.

We remain yours,
