BIG BEAVER BLIZZARDS.

Ice cream and strawberries at the hall, the 26th.

Quarterly meeting at the M. E. church last Sunday.

The drunkest man in seven counties was at the Beaver last Friday. Yes, was a genuine dead drunk.

Be sure and go to Red Ribbon Hall next Friday evening and get your best girl some ice cream and strawberries.

Dr. LaDoucour drives his own trotter now and says he doesn't propose to take anybody's dust. She is a la la, sure.

If you want to find anyone, man, woman or child next Friday evening, why go to the strawberry festival at the hall, for everybody will be there.

No blizzards last week as we were up in Saniac county visiting our old friend Atty Hendrickson, who moved out to Lamotte four years ago, onto a piece of wild land and now has a hard labor has made it one of the most promising eighties in the county. Ally is a tip top good fellow, as good fellows go, and we were entertained right royally. He says he is a long ways up north but can't keep house without THE ECCENTRIC and looks for it each week with pleasure.

The Red Ribbon Reform Club will hold a strawberry and ice cream festival at their hall next Friday evening, June 26th. Everybody cordially invited. This is no ordinary church fair stew with one oyster, but a large heaping dish of delicious strawberries and ice cream. Well, just come and see if the young ladies won't keep it up for you. The committee in charge of the following: Mrs. S. L. Robbins, Mrs. Payson Halsey, Miss Minnie Gillett, Miss Frankie Gibbs and Mr. F. R. Lamb. Come everybody and bring the rest with you.

Hurrah! hurrah! hurray! Fourth of July is almost here and the Beaver people turning with patriotism will celebrate in great shape by an elaborate display of fire-works in the evening. So come one and all and see the finest display of fire-works ever seen at the Beaver. Ice cream and lemonade for the ladies, and long sticks of candy for the babies.

OBITUARY.

Died, in Troy, on Sabbath evening, June 7th, Henry A. Judd, in the seventy-seventh year of his age. Mr. Judd was a son of Dr. Elnathan Judd and was born in Paris, Oneida, county, N. Y., December 25th, 1814. He came to Michigan in 1836 and settled on the farm where he resided up to the time of his death. Mr. Judd was the last of a long lived family. His mother who died at the Sandwich Islands, lived to the ripe old age of nearly ninety four.

DETROIT-THE BATTLE GROUND.

RARE SPORT AHEAD FOR PATRONS OF THE TROTTING TURF.

The Cranks of the East and West Will Meet for the First Time this Year at Hamtramck—The Great $10,000 Stake—Nelson, King of the Turf, to Trot—Program of the Blue Ribbon Meeting, July 20-25.

Indications are that Michigan people will this year be treated to a carnival of turf sport the like of which has not been seen in the history of harness racing. Preparations extraordinary are being made by the Detroit Driving Club for bringing together all the crack horses of the country, from Velona of Maine, whose record of 2:10¾ is the fastest ever made by a trotting stallion, to the superb little Cricket, 2:10, that trainer George Starr will bring all the way from California to try conclusions with the Tennessee champion, Hal Pointer, 2:04¾, in the free-for-all class for pacers.

By reason of a combination of lucky circumstances the outlook now is that the Blue Ribbon Meeting of July 20-25, will prove by all odds the most sensational of the year. Fortunately its dates are so arranged as to make Detroit the first great battle ground of the season in the struggle for supremacy between the crack trotters of the East and the West. From the opening meeting of the Grand Circuit, a week earlier, at Pittsburg, the noted Eastern drivers, Turner, Golden, Quinton and others, will ship the pick of their stables to Detroit, there to meet in battle royal the flower of the Western turf driven by Budd Doble, McHenry, Starr and Stewart. As this is the first meeting of the season at which the Eastern and Western stables come together, and the prizes contended for being richer than at any other meeting of the Grand Circuit, sensations, surprises and shattered records are certain to follow in rapid succession.

The program is indeed a brilliant one. "Blue Ribbon Day," as the opening day is termed, is made a genuine holiday for all who enjoy racing, the grounds being generously thrown open to the public, free of any admission. On that day the 2:27 class trot for a purse of $2,000; then follows a race between pacers of the 2:24 class for a purse of like amount; the day's sport concluding with a dash of a single mile for 2:20 trotters, which is likely to prove a very fast and exciting contest. Tuesday's card is a fine one. The opening race is a $2,000 purse for the 2:17 class, trotting, and this is followed by the event of the week, the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Stake. Thirteen of the fastest young trotters on the turf will start for the grand prize, $10,000, and a contest may be looked for equaling the memorable one of last year, won by the good horse Walter E. from a field of eleven after seven exciting heats. The 2:16 class, pacing, finishes Tuesday's programme. Wednesday the drawing card will be the race for double teams of the 2:20 class, in which some of the famous trotting pairs from New York City are expected to take part. Other events on this day are the dash of one mile for 2:14 pacers, and the purse of $2,000 for trotters of the 2:21 class. Thursday should be termed "Red Letter Day," its program including free-for-all races for both trotters and pacers, in addition to a rich purse for the 2:30 class trotting. Friday sees the conclusion of the trotting program, with purses of $2,000 for the 2:19 classes trotting and pacing, and a mile dash between 2:33 trotters. On Saturday, the last day of the meeting, a running will be the order, there being flat races at three-quarters, seven furlongs, one mile, and one mile and a sixteenth, and a hurdle race at one mile and a quarter.

The Detroit Driving Club is made up of gentlemen whom aim is steadily and continuously progressive, and on its grounds racing is seen at its cleanest and best. Many features of the Blue Ribbon program for 1891, which space will not permit of present mention, will be found detailed in a handsome souvenir that is soon to be issued by the Club and mailed free to all who request it.

Terms of Sale

(Show this to your Customers.)

"Please deliver at my residence, from your Nurseries, . . . the varieties and quantities of stock named (NO SUBSTITUTIONS) BY MISTAKE." . . . All stock to be of your first-class grade and to be delivered in a healthy condition."

The above is a part of the order-blank which our customers are ordering stock from us, and this shows the fair terms under which they are to receive stock from our Nurseries; for if we fail to deliver as per terms of this order, of course they are released from their obligation to pay. Our stock must be as ordered, if we want our pay. Notice that we agree not to substitute. Many firms have a clause in their order-blank giving them the right to substitute other kinds, in case they have not the kinds selected by customers. This is not fair to the customer, and customers buying under such terms are not sure as to the varieties that they will receive. There is no complaint in regard to this; but all customers buying from us will have no cause for complaint, as the stock will be exactly what they order in each and every case.
