

One sunny morning in May, I went out for a walk. I was alone and I was thinking about you. I was thinking about how much I love you. I was thinking about how much I need you. I was thinking about how much I want you. I was thinking about how much I care for you. I was thinking about how much I respect you. I was thinking about how much I admire you. I was thinking about how much I love you.

ONE ENJOYS

HOW WE MOVED.
It was the 20th day of April when my cousin, Peregrine Post, came into the office, thrice and ably as usual, with the bag of his hat, with much wax and expensive brushings, and a pair of fingerless gloves upon his hands.

German Syrup
"I have been a sufferer from Asthma and severe Colds ever Winter, and my friends as well as myself thought because of my feeble condition, and great distress from constant coughing, that I should be cured by a friend recommended to me to try this valuable medicine."

Gentle, Refreshing, Slipping,
"I have been a sufferer from Asthma and severe Colds ever Winter, and my friends as well as myself thought because of my feeble condition, and great distress from constant coughing, that I should be cured by a friend recommended to me to try this valuable medicine."
