

YEAR VOL-15 NO.23

TIME TABLE
Morning Express 7:40 a.m.
Night Express 11:40 p.m.

WE CAN OFFER YOU

The Best Selection of Boots, Shoes, and Rubbers, the best assortment of DRY GOODS

Farmers and Friends!

Choice Cockerel. We have a number of the open for sale, raising breeds: Rose Comb Brown Leghorns, Rose Comb White Leghorns, White Plymouth Rocks, Light Brahma.

SAXONY, SPANISH and ZEPHYR YARNS.

Our New Fall Goods are beginning to arrive. Our line of Shades and Shade Goods is now complete. Our stock of WALL & PAPER is also complete.

WATKINS STOCK FARM

Farmers Attention! Call on your old friend.

F. BLAKESLEE'S, Birmingham, Michigan.

ED. LAMB, HARNESS MAKER

1503 Woodford Ave., Detroit

C. H. SCHLACK & CO., (Successors to H. Irving.)

MISS JENNE PECK, TEACHER OF PIANO

1008 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich.

OLIVER PLOW and all its supplies at prices as low as anyone can sell them.

MISS MINNIE E. STARR, HANJO TEACHER

Royal Oak, Mich.

MISSOURI GRAIN DRILL for sale the Best Drill ever made.

MISS LILLIE ELLENWOOD, TEACHER OF PIANO

Troy, Mich.

Star Steel Roofing! A NEW DEPARTURE.

BIRMINGHAM PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. A. M. B. FARRAR, Pastor.

SCHOOL BOOKS AND SUPPLIES! We have just received, and offer for sale cheap all the School Books used in our school and the districts surrounding us.

BIRMINGHAM BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. J. M. B. FARRAR, Pastor.

Pens, Inks, Pads, Tablets, Lead and Slate Pencils, Sponges, Etc., Etc. Any book needed, no matter where published, will be procured on short notice.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Rev. W. C. G. FARRAR, Pastor.

A Fine Line of Staple Drugs and Groceries and a Large stock of Crockery, all sold cheap. Earthen Milk Pans, 1 and 1 gallons each, 8c per gallon. Crocks, all sizes, 1 gallon and up, 8c per gallon. GLASSWARE OF ALL KINDS.

M. F. LILLIS, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

Birmingham, Mich.

Domestic Sewing Machines, the best on earth, selling right along, and we give time on cash price if desired.

Whitehead & Mitchell, BIRMINGHAM, MICH.

Whitehead & Mitchell, BIRMINGHAM, MICH.

"Devoted to our Own Locality We Labor for its Interests."

BIRMINGHAM OAKLAND COUNTY MICHIGAN THURSDAY, OCT. 6, 1922.

WHOLE NO. 762

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: One Year, $1.00; Six Months, 60 Cents; Three Months, 35 Cents.

Preserved, when put by mail should be made to Express of Postal Order Office, Birmingham, Ala. The above rates include the payment of postage by Post Office Order or check payable to order.

Whithead visited the two red birds in the front of O'Neil's harness shop. "Once was enough for him," and he was greatly embarrassed to view the bird, a pair of wonderfully lured red birds, only two birds back.

We understand it is the intention of the parties who have recently bought land from Mr. Kase to open a street from Maple Avenue north to Brooklyn Avenue.

We call your attention this week to the professional card of Miss Lillie Ellenwood, who is a graduate of the Detroit school of music and who will give instruction in instrumental music, harp, cello and alto and her history of music.

We have received complimentary tickets to the Redford fair which is now on at the very much regretted that it is to be present at this important event.

It is our fact: it is factors that the politicians are all hunting for. Oh, dear, what on the matter? Why don't they trade here at night?

Regular conversation of Birmingham Lodge No. 114, K. P., Monday evening, Oct. 10, 1922.

Remember, that those wishing tickets for the lecture course may leave their names with Mr. E. L. Kreyer.

Miss Lillie E. Walker, who is visiting her family at Fowlerville and will be "at home" for the next three weeks.

Mr. Harmon Lawler of Grafton, has been visiting his cousin, Mr. George and Claire Aldrich of this place.

Rev. F. J. Milligan will preach for the Rev. A. H. Orr next Sabbath, at Troy and Southfield, at usual hours.

The latest books in the library are "History of Greece," by Leonard Smith, and "The March of the 10,000 Greeks," by George.

Master James Cobb has a volume of "Gray's Quix Compend" and it will be given a full fledged program in due time.

It is 22 a day for a carriage is a fair sample of Chicago prices during the World War. Any millwrights can afford to attend.

The B. D. C. hold their first dance of the 93rd day, Friday evening, Oct. 21. As they are booming things a big time can be expected.

New York is nothing if not commercial. Having succeeded in keeping the cholera out it is now getting ready to "kick" about the expense.

Mr. Oscar Richardson and sister Ella of Harbor Springs, visited with Mrs. Elizabeth and her family at their home in Troy and Southfield, at usual hours.

Regular conversation of Birmingham Lodge No. 44, F. A. M., this Thursday evening, Oct. 6, 1922.

Birmingham in May and June has received many compliments, but Birmingham and vicinity in October is fairly set in all of features most gorgeous colors.

The Ladies Literary Club will meet on Monday evening, Oct. 10, at the home of Miss Francis Curtis. Subject: "The Story of the Quixote" by English authors.

Mr. R. Elliott, a prominent merchant of Detroit, was in town last week and took in one of our prettiest views—the woods and creek from Maple Avenue just below Mr. Randall's home.

James J. Shain and family have moved into the house of George Shain lately vacated by Ed O'Neil who has moved in to his own home, the residence of his father-in-law the late George Blakeslee.

you know where your daughters and sons are in the night-time? Are you sure that it is not your apparently perfect child, who is robbing trees of their fruit in the night-time? There is considerable complaint regarding such depredations of late, and we ask that you see to it that it is not your child. We will undoubtedly be called upon to publish names before long, and you must not feel bad if it strikes near home. Two girls residing east of Saginaw street are the first ones on our list.

It is our sad duty to say that a Frenchman who said "I wish the Germans cannot write short stories. This assertion is disproved by the brilliant October number of Romance. It is the second in that magazine series of special issues, and more than half of the contents are from the German. Even the French school stories equal to Hugo Klein's "His Excellency, the Earl," Paul Heyne's "The Beginning," and the "End," and the Queen's "Tragedy of the Love," and Hans von Spielberg's "The Great Sahara." This magazine is issued by Romance Publishing Company, 111 East 42nd Street, New York.

When we got to Washington we marched about three-quarters of an hour, and finally arrived at Camp Alger, where we were quartered in Barracks A. There were accommodations for 100 men.

There were nine barracks latered A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, I. The barracks were three blocks high and sixteen blocks wide, divided into three sections, each section containing accommodations for 100 persons. There were G A posts arriving nearly every hour, day and night, up to Tuesday morning.

At the democratic representative convention held at Pontiac last Tuesday the candidates for U. S. R. Trip of Pontiac and Geo. H. Mitchell of this town. The ballots were as follows:

Table with 4 columns: Name, Total, For, Against. Candidates: Mitchell, Trip, Buchanan, Trip.

The following is a list of letters received, unclaimed in the post-office at Birmingham, Mich., for the month ending Sept. 31, 1922:

Advertisements: Hon. A. H. Tripp received the nomination by acclamation and will succeed himself being a re-election as one of the highest to-day in the estimation of the voters of this district.

The chicken thieves were brought before Equine Judges last Saturday, as noted last week. They were convicted and Detroit received 65 days in Hotel de Nicholson, Detroit, and Britain 90 days. Mitchell was discharged.

Some bold burglar broke up the back door of Mr. Geo. Riffenbake shop and abstracted therefrom a part of a silver and a showmaking knife. No trace of the thief has been made.

Among the many attractions at the county fair at Pontiac last week, and one which will be remembered by the original "Mid-Tartar," exhibited by Ed J. Hill. It is not a stuffed figure but a piece of wax work, but a living human being. This wonderful figure of wax work, but a living human being, was exhibited at the Milford fair next week and is well worth a visit.

We cannot say that we have heard of a sadder death than that of a two-year old child of our friend, Louis Stanch of Troy. The child was a very healthy one on a wagon loaded with hay, and was starting up, it fell, and the wheel passed over its body causing almost instant death. The family of Mr. and Mrs. Stanch have the sympathy of every acquaintance in this great town and sorrow.

Mr. Howells will begin in the November COMMOLOGICAL, a department under the attractive title "A Traveler from Altruria." Those who have seen the first issue will be glad to see it. It is now being printed in Detroit.

Why do you look for investments out side of Birmingham, when right here are chances to buy property on which buildings might be placed that would bring you ten per cent on all money invested? Don't let this opportunity pass. If you are willing to pay for them, and your needs here where it will add value to their property and prosperity to the builder.

The Birmingham Ladies Aid Society met Sept. 30, 1922, at the home of Mrs. T. Langley. Election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, Mrs. F. Hagerman; Vice President, Mrs. E. J. Langley; Secretary, Mrs. T. Langley; Treasurer, Mrs. T. Langley; Member of Board of Directors, Mrs. S. Mills.

The committee on interstate commerce has reported to the Senate a bill to amend the act relating to interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce.

The committee on interstate commerce has reported to the Senate a bill to amend the act relating to interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce.

The committee on interstate commerce has reported to the Senate a bill to amend the act relating to interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce.

The committee on interstate commerce has reported to the Senate a bill to amend the act relating to interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce.

The committee on interstate commerce has reported to the Senate a bill to amend the act relating to interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce.

The committee on interstate commerce has reported to the Senate a bill to amend the act relating to interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce.

The committee on interstate commerce has reported to the Senate a bill to amend the act relating to interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce.

The committee on interstate commerce has reported to the Senate a bill to amend the act relating to interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce, and to provide for the regulation of interstate commerce.

COULTY LINE CLIPPING: Frank Phelps is dispatching up the shreeding in our vicinity.

Haley & Merban are running their market fair all week.

Mr. M. Brown, of Saranac, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Warren Babcock.

Rev. Mr. Smith will be back at Royal Oak for the coming conference year.

Some of Birmingham's toughs came down on a spree Saturday night and got into a fight in Kenny's saloon.

Frank Springsteen with his two-year-old came out second in the race at Pontiac.

Henry Wheeler is building a house on the subdivision.

Robt. Thomas is back in Royal Oak again.

Martin Plummer was sporting a butcher's apron in Kenny's shop today this week.

List of visitors in Clawson the past week: Miss Zilpa and Miss Lucy Simonson, Mr. and Mrs. John Bull, of Detroit.

Mr. Edwin Millard and daughter, Grace, of Gains, are spending the week with old neighbors and friends.

The four-year-old son of Louis Stanch was yesterday killed last Thursday by a runaway train.

While at Washington, El Phillips visited the families of Albert and Oliver Pickett at Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. Hill formerly Mrs. Prickett of Union, Mich., who spent the winter at the home of El Phillips.

Our people who visited Mr. Clemens last week were John Davidson, Mr. H. J. Bowers and Miss Myrtle Byers.

Mr. Irving Millard is very poorly. Her daughter, Mrs. Strong, is with her constantly.

Miss Lillie Hall is a very successful music teacher.

Mrs. Avery who has been visiting in the west has returned home.

Jack Ford visited his wife and left his foot-prints upon the foliage, changing it from a beautiful green to the gray, black and red and yellow.

The Ladies Aid Society furnished money to paint the windows which had not been painted in seventeen years.

The political meeting last Saturday was well attended. The Troy brass band discoursed sweet music which, we heard on the program, found its way to the fatherly you were and sometimes "distance lends enchantment."

The people of Big Beaver regret very much that Rev. J. A. Howe was not returned to the city.

Miss Alberta Richmond, of Detroit, is the guest of Miss Frankie Gibbs at "The Apple" this week.