FISH CHARMED BY A SNAKE
 Fascination of thousands of feet for a water-hopper.
 Approaching a pool as large as a dining-room, we found "millions" of fish in the pond and the night air was filled with the sound of their bodies as they came out scurrying in every direction with such energy that we were almost unable to get any better contact with one than another killed them by dozens. Then we laid ourselves quietly down upon the ground by the pool, and the water hoppers came out in great numbers and were attracted by our light.

 A Tale which is told by the Tamen with a Grain of Salt.
