HOME NOTES.

Our roads are in pretty fair condition. The fact that Easter cannot be ready for next Sunday is a disappointment.

Money has been always on hand. E. C. Poppleton, Agt.

Austin and Ed Parks are racing round the country on a brand new bicycle.

Wanted, five good shoats, six months old. K. C. Poppleton.

Rest Family is still agent for the Grand Steam Laundry.

A man's patriotism and his personal interests are seldom very far apart.

House cleaning time and a general slick up for it is now in order.

Read Whitehead & Mitchell's change of address in this issue. It will pay any cost.

No. Jay Gould hasn't joined the Salvation Army, but he has made a $10,000 contribution to it.

Ice cream and summer gaily jinks may not be taken out of camp and polished up for the season.

John Davidson, Jr., of Troy, the fure part of this week was a great sufferer from mumps. He is better now.

John Fitzpatrick, the popular lawyer of Pontiac, is everly ill at his home in Pontiac.

J. S. Stockwell & Co., of Pontiac, have a new ad in this week. Don't give it passing glance but read it carefully.

Characteristic Boston whims for things, New York wants things, and Chicago gets things.

Policy controls more politicians, and comes to think of it, other people too, than principle does.

Saturday evening P. F. Hallock, of New York, will deliver an address "Faction" at National Hall, Detroit, Feb. 14.

Be sure and see "Alaska" on the evening of the 15th and join in "The Trip Around the World" on Tuesday evening at the Grand Hotel.

Somebody has offered an excuse for Julia Lewis' moral depravity the fact of his having in early life been a fisherman.

Miss L. Corey began work in Whitehead & Mitchell's store this week. Verily, the young ladies of Birmingham take to business as a matter of fact.

Mrs. E. M. Leonard was among her old friends last week making short calls and moving with hearty recognition.

L. Corey and son George, of Detroit, were in town last Friday. George peddled himself out on his tractions bicycle.

It has been suggested that Tom and Jerry, Tom Steel and Jerry Brown, would make a very inspiring ticket. Temperance people might think it a bit too suggestive.

Miss Hattie Lewis and Miss Kate Tuley of the winter started for her home with the family of A. L. Perkins this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Niles Sundayed with George Niles and family of Troy.

Mable Boudie, of Troy, is visiting from Detroit.

If a safe, safety bicycle nearly new for $65 worth, $90, cashless tire, convertible lamp, at this office, ECCENTRIC.

The "green goods" men appear to be unusually active this year, which indicates that the crop of fish is abnormally large and constantly increasing.

Deer Fall and Stanley are busy repainting the pleasant home of Thomas Legley and the new color makes the dwelling handsomer than ever.

The new water works ordonnances are working out their own salvation, some are satisfied with the new regulations, others are not.

Miss Mina Morse, who has been visiting at her cousin's, A. L. Perkins', through the winter, started for her home in Louisville, Kansas, last Friday.

A treat for all. Rev. Mr. Westlake, Monistie, will give two of his famous exhortations for the benefit of the Episcopal League, Monday and Tuesday evenings in the M. E. church.

Let every one slick up in front of his property and do it promptly and the whole village will shine like a brand new Easter bonnet.

North, last night (Wednesday evening).

A pleasant evening was passed by the old crowd and they left the happy couple a beautiful silver revolving butter-dish as a memento of the high school. Only one unfortunate left now in the crowd. The crowd helped the organ fund.

One night last week a pleasant little party was held at the residence of Wm. Robinson in this village. It was the 21st birthday of his son George, who, with a few friends was out from Detroit, and passed a most delightful evening.

No wonder Ben Butler wants to see the American flag waving from the top of the north pole, he owns the only bottling factory in the United States.

Our former friends will find it to their advantage to read the ad of the Watkins Stock Farm this week. If you want some eggs for hatching thoroughbred fowls, call at the farm west of the mill.

Special communication of Birmingham to the Detroit Occurrence, this Thursday afternoon 1:30 p. m. sharp, to attend the funeral of R. T. Merrill.

The Canadians have caught the true fever, and have started organized one to control all the cotton mills in that country. By and by there may be a consumers' trust, then let somebody be sure.

The colors seem to be a little mixed up in the case of James Gray, of Virginia, who was originally of a brown color, but who is rapidly turning white.

He must at times be in doubt as to whether to be gray, or white.

Wanted for term of years, Oakland or Wayne county resident. Address John K. Squires, 229, McDougall Ave., Detroit, Mich.

It is the only law for jailbreaks to be seen on the streets of Chicago. If the law is not repealed it will greatly reduce the attendance at the World's Fair.

A New Yorker celebrated "All fools day" by attempting to ride a wild reefer on a crowded thoroughfare in that city. He will not repeat the experiment. He is a dead.

William C. Jenks in Saginaw this week, for the lumber of his home in Birmingham over the river Rouge. It takes three car loads of lumber from the pine woods up north and will soon loom up to beat all.

Mrs. James Van Eversy, of Wing Lake, Mich., will be in the city this morning for Wichita, Kansas, to visit their relatives Mrs. Harvey Higby and family and James Van Eversy.

Mrs. M. Estelle Hemmings is having her things packed and sent to her by the express, Faint & Staley, and when thoroughly finished will occupy it herself. The homestead place on Pierce street will still for sale.

Miss Rosa Raymond and her sister Miss Blossom, of Pontiac, visited their many friends in this village last week. They are nice little girls and have a host of friends among their playmates in this place.

Vacation in Detroit this week. Master George Corey, of Detroit, paddled himself out on his safety, last week, and spends his time with his grandmother and the family of G. H. Mitchell.

Latest popular music. "Lullied to Sleep" song, price 50 cents; "Woodbury March," price 40 cents. For information, will mail folder for you gratis, send your name and address to National Music Bureau, Louisville, Ky.

Our letter from Mrs. Mary McCarrroll, from Syria, this one is full of interesting news from the friends of Mrs. McCarrroll. Her descriptions of ways and objects in that far off land is natural and pleasing.

Read J. R. Brooks' ad in this issue. It reports good success in the chicken business, has set all his warring stock and is sending out a great many eggs. He invites all interested in chickens to call and see him. He will be pleased to show you around.

M. H. Blunt will visit for Mrs. Addie Boudie on the John Johnson farm, 2 1/2 miles south and 2 miles west of Birmingham, at 10 o'clock p. m. sharp, on Saturday, April 23, horses, sheep and farming implements to mention other things.

One of the most pleasant visits of the season was the reception given by Miss Stella Rundel at her home last Friday evening. A large party of friends were present from this and other places and everybody had a pleasant time.

The plate glass for J. Pound's new store front arrived Friday and is being now placed in position. Mr. Pound is anxious to get the store ready for business as early as possible.
