"German Syrup"

Mrs. Elmerine Hawley, was taken with a severe cold, which became very much alarmed, fearing that it would develop into pneumonia. She tried nearly all kinds of medicine but nothing did her any good. Finally she took German Syrup, and she told me it did her more good than anything she ever tried. It stopped the cold, gave her strength and she is now in good health.

CARVING THE TREE TOOTH

For more than a hundred generations there has been a pupil of artistry in the hands of the Chinese. The life-work is the carving of the gnatcatcher and interlaced roofs of the gables of the palaces of the Emperor.

"A large tree with a wide canopy of leaves, its trunk and branches forming a natural support for the roof of the temple, is the ideal of the Chinese carver.

"The carver must have a certain amount of artistic talent, and a certain amount of technical skill. He must be able to work with a chisel and a gouge, and he must be able to carve a design into a piece of wood.
