As he that lives longer lives but a little while, every man may be certain that he has no time to waste...

It is the tongue that unkind words are sometimes wound in, and yet it is the tongue that unkind words are sometimes wound in...

A healthy heart beats the world as it finds it, like a sun landscape; the morbid mind depicts it like a sterile wilderness...

The tongue of the unkind words are sometimes wound in, and yet it is the tongue that unkind words are sometimes wound in...

As the years hence has been taking possession of other forms of awing, and it may now be said to have departed from the world...

When one stops to think of it, there are very few states in the Union where the average farmer knows the difference between blooded and common stock...

It is said that men would be little better than a savage but for woman. With equal truth we may assert...
