There is a stereotyped phrase that "everything which is used on the farm" is "old-fashioned" and "little usefully at all."

The tax payers of Birmingham are mostly those who, when the assessment board of the village board may be able to attend to broken sidewalks, and some even express the hope that they may get time to recover the fountain.

These republicans who say that President Harrison cannot be elected, and those democrats who say that about about Mr. Cleveland, should "go together" and agree upon a program, in order to relieve the suspense in which they have left the country.

Miss Mary E. Uter visited her many friends in London and Grand Rapids.

Mr. Eugene Brooks and son Frank are visiting friends and hunting bear and panthers away out west in Washington and Oregon.

A Mexican presidential election is a matter of which there is only one candidate. Still there are people who call Mexico a republic.

ADVERTISED LETTERS. The following is a list of letters remaining unclaimed at the postoffice at Birmingham, for the month ending June 30, 1892.

MATHEMATICAL. One of the latest little widdings of the season came out at Clarkson, Mich., June 29, 1892, at 12 o'clock noon.

THE RECORD BREAKER OF STRAITS. The most uncertain of earthly things, we rarely meet in this vicinity, at any rate we thought so last week, just after we had gone to press with the article on the subject of the gay time we had at the Straits Lake camp, the news came that Tom Ward had again broken the record at the annual competition.

THE BOYS ALL RETURNED. The boys all returned in the pink of condition for the annual picnic at the Straits Lake camp on Saturday p. m., and had a most elegant time.
