OBITUARY. Died, in Birmingham, Thursday, July 28th, George Blakeslee, in the 64th year of his age.

The subject of this sketch was one of the flourishing dealers of this village and had been until quite lately engaged in mercantile pursuits for a period of nearly twenty years back. He began life with no means and has made money by the exercise of prudence, careful oversight of his affairs and judicious economy combined with vast expenditure.

He was born in the town in which he died, December 28, 1829, being a son of Scriba and Thankful (Cawwell) Blakeslee, New Englanders who came to Michigan from New York in about 1824.

He was a member of the Baptist church, and was a member of the Michigan Agricultural Society. He was a member of the Michigan Agricultural Society, and was a member of the Michigan Agricultural Society.
