The Actor's Story.

CHAPTER VII.—CONTINUED.

Fred found Jeannie McPherson leaning against a door. The name of the perpetrator of the outrage was hardly known to the servant. The group of Figs is for sale in 50c and 81 bottles with all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

SPARKS AND SPANLES.

Mothers, looking over her boy's shoulder, who spelling is perfectly correct. Little Tom says he is a "big fellow" and that he would like to be a "big fellow" like his father. He says he would like to be a "big fellow" like his father.

WHAT NATURE CAN DO.

The echo of the "Eagle's Nest" Killarney record, repeats itself again at least 100 times.

NATURAL HISTORY NOTES.

A rattlesnake will not cross a hair rope. Experienced campers, when they fear the rattlesnakes are around, conceal their camp with a hair rope or two feet square.

ARITHMETICALLY SPEAKING.

It is estimated that it costs well-to-do people in this country $12,000,000 a year to support a large number of idle men, while about $500,000,000 are invested in permanent buildings, where the money are constantly being employed.

NOTES AND NOVELTIES.

The first man of woman are the wisest first their last resolutions the most dangerous.
