R.H. TRAVLER 171, 173, 175 WOODWARD AVENUE, DETROIT.

Livingston Democrat: Rev. C. C. Miller of the Howell Baptist church delivered most excellent sermon on "The rationality of faith" last Sunday evening, which made such a profound impression on the hearts of the congregation that he was requested to repeat it next Sunday morning and has consented to do so. It was a master effort and is well worth going to hear.

There will be a public meeting on Sabbath evening, November 5, in the Methodist Episcopal church for the consideration of questions of vital interest to our national life. There will be a number of speakers and the following subjects will be presented from a Christian standpoint: 1. The nation's need and the duty of christian patriotism. 2. The family and the state. 3. Necessity of reform agitation for the conservation of the christian elements in the national life. 4. The civil Sabbath as a pledge of our American civilization and in constitutional law. Speaking will be led by Rev. McCracken.

Some years ago, say about 20 years, while the writer was attending school at the common school in the town of C. S. Mabley in his clothing house in Detroit. From there he went to Louis-ville, Ky., and in partnership with a Mr. ...

It is a common mistake to believe it, if a merchant makes a mistake he never tells it, if a lawyer makes a mistake he crawls out of it, but if an editor makes a mistake he puts it on a large sheet of paper for the world to look at.
