Jessie Wooster. The young ladies at this writing are quite indisposed by reason of several colds, but will be better by the time of this meeting they will be bright, happy and well as usual.

Don't say a word to Postmaster Randall about the market condition of eggs, if you do you are apt to get in serious al loration. The facts are those, while gone home just after our first fall of snow with a bag containing 60 elegant specimens of hen fruit, when he struck the sidewalk in front of Mrs. E. Hall's picture, she was walking along Bar
