of a farmer made maple syrup... habits, amiable disposition, affectionate... attached to his friends, of whom he was a large number. His death will be sincerely mourned by many.

While passing through Run Center one day last week, we noticed that one of the citizens still had a Harison and Reed banner flying from the top of a republican pole. They are either in ignorance of the result of the late election, or are still devoted to the "lost cause." In either case neighbor, it would better show the spirit of the American people if you would cut it down.—Rose correspondent in Pontiac.

What's that matter with Whitehead and Park? Harison, C. has boys. It was dated last fall. Why don't you tumble?

In response to numerous inquiries Attorney General Ellis has announced that in the event of a general election the names of the candidates for the supreme justice, regents of the university, circuit judge and county commissioners of schools, must be printed under the caption of the county and the names of the candidates, while separate tickets, which shall appear the names of candidates for city, village or township officers, must be printed under the direction of the city and village or township commissioners, provided for under the statute. Separate tickets must be provided.

The editor sat on hard-bottomed chair trying to think a thought and he planned it all but got stuck. He was tired and he got tired. He was tired and he got tired. He was tired and he got tired.

Warren Allen professes a good deal of child talk and claims the title of "warrior of the culled church," but his black lips has a mighty itching for other people's wood piles. He is built that way. He is built that way. He is built that way.
