At Rich Hoard's, one building lost catively and other barns unroofe.

At Al Babook's, all his buildings unroofed and presty well used.

At Franklin Skinner's, one cow shed entirely down, horse barns budly demoralized and house budly damaged.

At Cartwright's, house entirely gone, not worth a dollar, harns unroofed and off foundations.

At Frank Redick's all his barns un-gone.

At J. Baening's, house blown off foundation some 25 feet and entirely destroyed and his barn is pretty well used up.

At Cy Brass's, barn is down.
At Fred Brase's portion of his big barn unroded and smaller outsuidings are all down and one attailed seatirely down.
At John Blakey's, we hear the buildings are all down and one valuable horse billed.
Should estimate the damage from 10 I thensuad dollars from Henning's to Blakey's.

The other buildings are the story of the buildings are all down and the story of blakey's.
