

A good deal of small advantage is taken in the domestic line in a commercial way, but now a Frenchman is recording, her lays in a phonograph, even as Professor Gericke has subtly dealt with the monkey.

DIRECTOR DYKOR says the music of America, when we have a national music, must be based upon the melodies of the negro. Any basis in the strength of originality and the sweetness of unspiced nature. Any nation might go much further and afar such words.

As a sort of imperial avenger under the German circle Emperor William appears to be quite a success, but it is not necessarily for the best, as the Germans will vote to tax themselves out of house and home merely to support the Kaiser's whim for the biggest army yet.

ERNEST WILLIAM judges in the luxury of speech-making just as though he was unaware that his countrymen are the most dangerous institutions in his dominions. For a while he honored Blinnack and after his marriage he has been making things hot for him, as usual.

Some German writers are circulating among the masses of the people, and they are talking for the withdrawal of the anti-Whisker restrictions on the part of the United States, accompanied by an "anti-liquor" amendment these petitions would doubtless carry everything before them.

The spectacle of two society young men, one confident and the other only absolute, date, meeting in the street and clashing like a pair of cats, is a sight which has become a familiar sight in the streets of New York. It is that neither side gets a scratch.

It is claimed to be informed, from London that diamond, which were trifles, are, again in the flood tide of favor. Newspaper men who were once the most popular of the year when fashion went them to the rear will now bring their supply home to the city and sell at a profit or two without exciting much criticism.

The commercial persistence of the effort to introduce the automobile as a mode of transport is being insisted upon in Europe. Formerly it was being introduced in the form of a toy, but now it is being introduced as a mode of transport.

CONGRESS to late census bulletins of the 24,000,000 acres of arid land available by irrigation, 3,631,381 acres, or 15.1 per cent of the total, valued at $4.11 per acre.
