AMERICA

As anticipated and predicted the great historic spectacle "America," produced at the Auditorium by Abbey, Schoeffel & Grau under the direction of Imre Kiralfy has taken and will hold the lead in the amusements of Chicago during the World's Fair. From the opening night it has been a deserved success, nothing to equal it ever having been seen or attempted. The ballets, sceneries, costuming, scenic effect—all is on such elaborate and magnificent scale that description can only serve as crude outline of the reality. One attracting feature of "America" is that the performance is given in the Auditorium, the most perfect theatre in the country. It is known as the largest, best equipped, most magnificent and safest theatre in existence, and is absolutely fire-proof. Notwithstanding the magnitude of the production, and the popularity already attained by "America," there is no advance-in prices and the popular prices will be maintained through the season. Manager Adams of the Auditorium announces performances every night except Sunday with matinees Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Scribner's Magazine for June opens with the second article in the series on "Men's Occupations," which is to be a feature of the coming months, including among its contributors W. D. Howells, W. Clark Russell, Julian Ralph and John Drew. The article in the present issue is "Life in a Logging Camp," by Arthur Hill, President of one of the great Michigan lumber companies. He has written from the fullest knowledge, having been through almost every phase of the lumber business—since as a mere school-boy he started out to learn the business of a lumberjacker. A feature of his article is the very intimate and attractive picture which he gives of the "shanty boy," as the logger is called, describing how he actually lives, and picturing his bravery and lightheartedness, his hardships and his amusements; the risks he takes, and the chance for promotion which the life offers. "The Reflections of a Married Man," which has proved such a success as a serial and in book form. This installment is illustrated by W. T. Smedley. There are also short stories by T. R. Sullivan and William Henry Bishop, and the concluding chapters of Mrs. Aurnett's serial "The One I Knew Best of All," which will be issued in book form. The number includes poems by H. C. Bunner, Edith M. Thomas, E. S. Martin and others. For sale by Mrs. Sawyer.

"For eight years, I was, most of the time, a great sufferer from constipation, kidney trouble, and indigestion, so that my constitution seemed to be completely broken down. I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and took nearly seven bottles, with such excellent results that my stomach, bowels, and kidneys are in perfect condition, and, in all their functions, as regular as clock-work. At the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, my weight was only 129 pounds; I now can brag of 170 pounds, and was never in so good health. If you could see me before and after using, you would want me for a traveling advertisement. I believe this preparation of Sarsaparilla to be the best in the market to-day."

Read This---It Will Be of Benefit to You.

I sell CARPETS from samples. I have been doing this for some time. It is the best way Let me tell you why.

1st—I can show you a MUCH LARGER LINE TO SELECT FROM than any dealer can afford to carry in the roll.

2nd—I can have Carpets CUT BY THE JOBBERS who have several rolls of each pattern with less loss or waste than I could from one roll of each kind.

3rd—I never have any OLD GOODS to sell you. Every purchaser gets a NEW Carpet in the LATEST patterns, fresh from the looms, without any moths or Buffalo bugs in them.

4th—I never have any REMNANTS to sell at a loss, therefore I can sell you Carpets cheap.

Then I Have One Other Great Advantage

over ALL others selling from ROLL or by sample. That is an exhibitor which will give you a very satisfactory idea of how a carpet will look when it is all stitched and laid on the floor. This will enable you to pick out a carpet you will be sure to be pleased with.

If you will come and look for yourselves I will show you that the above is absolutely correct in every respect.

FURNITURE.

I also carry a large line of FURNITURE of all kinds and if you think of buying anything this line I will give you prices that cannot be discounted by any of the city dealers. I have no high rents to pay or expensive help to settle with, and, therefore, can give you the very best goods for the least money. The favor of a call solicited whether you purchase or not. No trouble to show goods.

Yours for bargains,
