Miss Flora Keyes is expected home soon from England where she has been teaching school the past year. She will teach the World's Fair before coming.

Miss Grace Brown after a year's absence in California and later a few weeks stay in Chicago during which the World's Fair was visited is home with her mother Mr. M. L. Noble for the summer.

Erastus Wootter who has been here on a short visit to his parents, has returned to his Illinois home. His brother Elmer went home with him and will remain there during the summer.

Birmingham was full of overdoing with visitors last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs.
Mack Astor, of Rochester, Mr. and Mrs.
Linbury, and Miss Alabaster visited with Mr. and Mrs. Theron Smith.

Our office boy, C. E. Aldrich, shot fire-crackers and sky rockets and also ice cream and drank lemonade at Gaines on the 4th of July. He returned yesterday and says he had the most enjoyable time.

The Saginaw Courier Herald Co., of which our old friend Fred C. Cowles is Sec. and Treas., is enjoying a right snug boom from a clothing house and rice and flour.

Mr. Frank Thurke with his daughter, Mrs. F. Blakeslee and the children are happily settled at Camp Comfort on the banks of Watkins Lake and are enjoying life. Mr. E. J. and family are in the Hilgeway school for the summer.

In old times it seemed to be thought that a medicine most be nauseating to be effective. Now, all is changed. Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is the most powerful alternative, is agreeable to most palates, the favor being by no means medicinal.

A soft, fair skin is the result of pure blood and a healthy liver, to secure which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the secure alternative, is agreeable to most palates,
the favor being by no means medicinal.

Since the shaking of the Victoria there isn't so much talk about unskateable tanks.

The British battleship "Camperdown" ought to have its name changed to "Rock and Roll."

Miss Anna Cooper and her friend Miss Stearns recently of Detroit spent Sunday with friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McCarty and little son of Oxford visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chamberlain.

A recent newspaper cablegram was headed "Mr. Bayard sees the queen." It is to be hoped he had the best hand.

Why pay $150 for a bicycle when you can get just as good for only $80? Call on us at 121 E. Exchange office.

Mr. Thamel and family and also Miss Bones from Wisconsin are visiting Mrs.
Shader on the Elliot farm in Southfield.

Farmers are having a good crop year so far, now then, if prices would be as promising, old Oakland would smile all over.

Mrs. Fred Stephens entertained a few of her lady friends to high tea, Wednesday afternoon, June 28. Decorations were pink.

For sale, a new Champion binder, has only one lot of 10 acres of grain. Call on or address Martin Wells, Birmingham, Mich.

"Come join my paying my taxes" is the present South Carolina style of asking a man to take a little "piece" into his system.

Taxes are now due and our marshal, George Fay, will be at Deane's furniture store every afternoon for the purpose of collecting them.

Less than one-eight of the free passage to the World's Fair are held by newspaper men. This may surprise some people, but it's true.

Meers, "Ginger" Cooper and Harry Payne of Detroit had a race from Detroit with the 450 train and came out best (no say) last Saturday.

Miss Jean Hagstrom, of Pontiac, is the welcome guest of Miss Corrie Hagstrom and enjoyed her 4th of July very much.

Will some one please inform us through The Eccentric what to do to prevent our grapes from rotting?

Rev. A. H. Orr will be absent for some two or three weeks during which time he will enjoy his annual vacation among friends at Savannah, Ga.

ural food and color-matter for the hair fol.

The Postal note which has never been a very popular instrument, must go. It will be succeeded by a postal scrip. A check calling for amounts from one to $4 has been prepared from the Treasury Department and will be in use from the payment of one cent the amount to be sent will be torn off about the same as an express order. There will be no trailing of any kind by the postmaster, the sender endorsing it as a draft check.

The government guarantees its safe transportation.

The following from the Belding Banner ought to be printed in bold letters and posted on every street corner. "If some of our young boys who are spending their evenings listening to gossip on the streets and other places where their company could be dispensed with, would change the program and begin the systematic reading and study of good books and papers at home, they would become men of influence and power and rise above the intellectual mediocrity of those whose conversation comes largely from the street and other unwholesome places for the youths."

May Bryant of this village was under arrest at Pontiac recently and in jail.
Her case was noted previously on condition that she leave the circuit clerk of Pontiac and pay all costs of court. She did so and came home accompanied by a Mr.
Ward. Saturday night Constable Fay received an order to rear guard and at Saturday evening went down and gathered in Mr. Ward and delivered him to a Pontiac officer who took him to jail.

An exchange says. Take a drive through the country and carry a three foot pine stick with you. Cut a notch every time you see a piece of farm machinery standing out of doors upon the premises. It suits them all right, if it suits the farmer. This is the greatest kind of carcase census, and if every farmer would build a cheap trap covered shed, for looks or implements to shed rain and sunlight and use it they would save hundreds of dollars annually.

Miss Marsh and Miss Esther Marsh have obtained permission to hold a summer term of lessons in vocal music and physical culture, under the DeLafayette system, in the Intermediate room of the school building. They hope to open the school July 10. On Friday afternoon, July 7, they will be pleased to meet all who are interested in having such lessons formally, at three o'clock, in the Intermediate room. They will then present the general plan of the classes, give an outline of the DeLafayette system, terms of instruction and for the first class in the use of Indian clubs and dumb bells, be formed if desired. Come to the meeting on Friday p. m. Whether you wish to join the class or not.

People who do not live in Royal Oak may be surprised to know that the average Royal Oak water bill is $2.50 per month.
It is a fact. Strange isn't it? But it is a fact and one day last week a fishing club was organized and eight gentlemen went out to fish for a day and night, the having chosen sites for a day's sport. The losing side to pay all expenses. Meers, Hagert, Tom, Ed Granger, and Ossa Allen were on one side and Meers, Hagert, Tom, Ed Granger, Marshall and Finn were their opponents. The first four caught the most weight of fish but the latter four caught and won the contest. They claim the fishing was the best of the season in one day and that part of the first quartette fished three days in all. That's the business for you.

Scribner's Magazine for July contains a striking article in the Kussel's occupations series by W. Clark Russell the author of "The Tale of the Two Cities." The "Merchant Sailor," giving a graphic picture of the life of a sailor, and a series of short stories, is a most interesting and valuable addition to the magazine. The illustrations are by Frank Br-gwyn an English marine artist whose work is new to American magazines.
Robert Grant's amusing fiction "The Op-ion of a Philosopher," is continued in this issue. The "Life of a Sailor" contains a stirring description of a Harvard Yale foot ball match at Springfield.
There is also a short story by Anna Fuller. Among the poems is one of the most original and poetic of the season.
The kind of reader for his ice cream.
Happy up with your friends.

We are to have a bazaar school entertainment in the near future.
Persons are invited to learn that Mrs. J. A.
Carnegie, who has been at the same hospital at Orion for the last six weeks, is not getting along very well.

Our school has closed. Miss Frankie Gibbs has been promoted to be substituted by a beautiful personage who was selected by Miss Maud Smith in a most little speech.
