What was doing since Mitchell and family left us. They had been gone about one hour when John A. Big Wolf, Mr. Oates' partner, arrived in town. Camp Comfort No. 8 was glad of it and took the visitors right in for them to the best of their ability and received the great big dash of abuse that was heaped for Mitchell.

Tuesday F. Blakeslee came, Wednesday he got home sick and Thursday returned.

Wednesday Mr. Lester Conroy's family and Mr. Turner, Miss Biddle and Master Roy Turner visited at Duke's.

Thursday Mrs. E. C. Poppleton and children visited. Friday the Joyce, Jones and returned with a fine, cold. Mitchell went home for a few days and everything was as quiet as a boiler factory until the afternoon when we were all surprised and pleased to see faithful old Browne coming over the hill, when it was "Hurrah for Whithead!"

Saturday morning Frank Durfee went to Pontiac for edibles and drinkables. He returned with a fine, cold of bread and two cases of Hoboken for Sunday. The surroundings were peaceful only to be broken by the arrival of faithful Browne bringing to our camp Mr. Whithead accompanied by Mrs. Nellie Litwin and Master Bayne Whithead.

By numerous unmistakable signs they all being beyond the power of speech on their arrival and having lost their wits their wants were supplied by neighbor Blakeslee and after a cup of tea and a light lunch to begin with the voyagers soon recovered and at once entered upon their usual and happy camp life.

Martin is still in and will all enjoy his apartment. It must be heard to be appreciated. More anon.

A GREAT BASKET. SOUTHFIELD FLASHES. Harvest is done, the wheat in and the oats ready for the sickle.

Miss McCarrall who has been visiting with her sister has returned home to New York.

The social at Wm. Bode's passed off pleasantly.

Some time ago occurred the death of Mrs. A. Muldragh from the kick of a horse. This was a member of the R. F. Church and leaves a husband, daughter and a large circle of friends to mourn her loss.

If Flaheen will get their letter mailed today and it will appear in the book of writing. Just one day earlier please.

County Line Clippings. D. Dunn has sold 18 acres of grass for seed. J. Dunn is boring a well for Mr. Goodale. George Harmon's wheat went 30 bushels per acre. Jerry Trilinger has moved into D. Clement's house. Wm. Frow of Big Rapids, visited relatives in our vicinity last week. Friday evening the donation sent to the H. E. preacher at Warren. A number of people set their nests at the door for $1 per hundred—no testing, either. Caretakers have the frame of the big house built on the Redick place open. It is case will readily know "what's the matter with Frow."

Yours for facts and truth. W. M. J. JENNA. NOTICE. Taken up by the undersigned of Southfield, one black or brown gelding, age about 7 years, white collar and white mane. Southfield, July 12, 1893.
