HOME NOTES.

Miss Rose Allen is home from Kalamazoo.
We saw our old friend Sherman Bush in town one day recently.
"Shirlock Holmes," by Conan Doyle is the latest book in the library.
Washington hopes to get rid of the small pox before it gets Congress again.
The L. L. C. met at Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock with Mrs. Geo. S. Smith.

THE WORLD WAS SMALL.

The world was small, so we have known young Nicholas, who has just ascended the Russian throne, will live long enough to be known as "Old Nick."

The smart railroad manager who has been so successful in the management of the Michigan Central and other lines, is now in the city for the purpose of perfecting arrangements for the winter season.

It is understood we have a second of the discussion of politics to be suspended long enough to enable the brethren to prepare for the winter now almost upon us.

The winter will not be the severest of a new lot, as on an election day, on the eve of granding, he knows that the hour is a more promising subject.

Subscribers are called on for a guarantee of regular payment. It is the best thing for you. Only one cent a week, 25c a month, and $1.00 a year.

November 5, 1894, entered into rest at the residence of her sister, Mrs. David J. Allen, H. E. Allen, Detroit, Carriage Driver, daughter of Mrs. Henry Baker, of Ann Arbor, and widow of Mrs. Clarence Henderson, of Mason.

Miss W. Smith, Beatrice and Hanna, male partners, furnished the money for the purchase of the property on the corner of Third and Washington streets, Detroit, Mich.

The next lecture of the Library course next Monday evening. At that time Mrs. W. W. Mitchell speaks on "The Social Life of the People."

At the time of the first entertainment the reports from the sale of tickets were satisfactory. The ladies were very sorry that anyone was inconvenienced and hereafter will be only single tickets to fill the seats, allowing for one, only one ticket per person.

Each ticket to the lecture course admits two persons, and people who take children must either take the child or the price of a single ticket.

Children will not be admitted to the gallery unless accompanied by parents. Doors open at 7:30 p. m. Lecture at 8:00 p. m.

There are three ways of getting out of Library Hall: The front stairway, the side stairway at the southwest corner, the stairway leading from the door under the stage, and even a fourth way, through the check room into the hall.

As an offer to the ladies of American society that has been carried off by the European professional women, the book, "The Social Life of the People," is now available at a very low price.

Miss T. S. Hawkins, Chatterbox, says, "I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated liver. I get my appetite, liver and kidney trouble cured. Price 25c. Sold by Whitehead & Mitchell."

Mr. George W. Hill, an early pioneer of Oakland county, died at his home in Southfield Sunday p. m. His funeral was held Tuesday of this week and was held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Hill.

The Wet's Laundry Room, the best place for laundry work. Each package makes two quarts. 15c each. Sold by Whitehead & Mitchell.

A SAD ACCIDENT

William Hagan, age 19, killed by an Engine at Valparaiso.

As usual as of late, we have had to relate for a long time the accidental death of Will Hagan at Valparaiso where he was employed as a fireman at the Michigan Central.

The signal was changed at this point and during the interval of changing the men were signalled to return to the yard.

The engine was standing still at the yard when the yard master was passing by him that the engine was not then going to the crossing as was being run.
