Because It is so Pure!

That's the great reason why you should know about our salt. It requires the best to make the best. The good farmer pastures this with his seed; shall the butter maker be less wise? Our salt is as carefully made as your butter—made expressly for dairy work; and right dairymen everywhere find their butter better made and their labor better paid when they use

Diamond Crystal Dairy Salt.

No matter what brand you have used, just give this a fair trial. It is pure, free from grit, and dissolves first in cream, and you get its worth. Whether for dairy or table use, you will find it to your advantage to be accustomed with the salt that's all salt.

SIXTY YEARS.

The 60th anniversary of the organization of the Presbyterian church of Birmingham, Mich., was observed on the second of July, 1894.

In 1833 Rev. John Monteith was commissioned by the Board of Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church as a missionary to Southern Michigan. On the 5th of August of that year a society was organized in Detroit for the support of religious worship which was called the First Protestant Society of the City of Detroit. This society was organized and J. Deming, Levi Browne and Samuel Hunter were elected trustees and elders. Thus was organized the first Presbyterian church in Michigan. And the First Presbyterian church of Detroit still retains as its corporate name the title of "The First Protestant Society of the City of Detroit."

The second Presbyterian church in Michigan was organized in 1836 at Monroe.

The third was organized Feb. 26, 1825, in the town of Bloomfield, Oakland county. It was afterward removed to Auburn, and from there to Pontiac, and is now known as the First Presbyterian church of Pontiac. This was the mother church of the county, but only of the Presbyterian denomination, but also of all churches of the christian faith.

On July 1, 1824, a meeting was held in the house of Dea. E. S. Fish near Bloomfield Center, for the purpose of organizing a church. Rev. Leonard McEwen and George Eastman of the Detroit Presbytery were present. The following persons presented letters, viz.: Wm. Blackington and Amy his wife, Elijah S. Fish and Fanny his wife, from the Presbyterian church of Pontiac; Abraham L. Hoagland and Daniels H. Lockwood from the Presbyterian church of Troy. Mich.; Thomas and Newell Comfort from the Presbyterian church of Southport, Tioga county, N. Y., and Nathan Davis from the First Presbyterian church of Utica, N. Y. These nine persons constituted the "Bloomfield Presbyterian Church." Elijah S. Fish and Abraham L. Hoagland were chosen Elders of the church. This church was organized a little before the Synod of Michigan. The first meeting of this Synod was held in Ann Arbor, Sept. 28, 1834. The opening sermon was by Rev. George Eastman. At that time Michigan was only a Territory.

On Feb. 20, 1850, the name of the society was changed from the Bloomfield Presbyterian church to the "First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham, Mich."

The following persons have served as ministers of this church, viz.: Rev. Mr. Cook from Dec. 20, 1834, to April 30, 1836; Rev. A. A. Wells from June 25, 1837, to Oct. 4, 1840; Rev. Geo. Duffield from Nov. 28, 1841, to July 10, 1842; Rev. E. H. Fairchild from Nov. 22, 1843, to March 27, 1846; Rev. S. N. Sizer from Aug. 20, 1849, to Jan. 5, 1851; Rev. James McLaurin from Sept. 22, 1851, to April 17, 1854; Rev. N. N. Hill from May 18, 1855, to May 1, 1867; Rev. Albert E. Hastings from Nov. 26, 1867, to Nov. 1, 1873; Rev. W. J. Stoutenburg from Feb. 18, 1874, to Nov. 19, 1876. Rev. Thomas Middlemiss from Feb. 7, 1877, to Jan. 1, 1884; Rev. S. V. McKee from Sept. 14, 1884, to Feb. 11, 1887. These are all gone from earth except Revs. Middlemiss and McKee. Their words do follow them. Rev. A. Marsh was installed as pastor of the church May 7, 1890.

The following persons have served as ruling elders of the church, viz.: Elijah S. Fish, Abraham L. Hoagland, Thomas Comfort, Seymour Adams, Dennis H. Quick, H. Wendell, S. V. R. Trowbridge, Wm. Lawren, D. D. Sinsabaugh, J. M. Trowbridge, S. Cooper, J. L. Hunter, M. I. James, A. Daniels, A. S. Adams, J. W. Perry, Wm. Parks, Hugh Irving, J. E. Paton.

Revs James and Calvin P. Quick were children of this church so also were the Foreign Missionaries Miss Catherine J. Trowbridge and Miss Lizzie Quick.

The oldest member of the church now remaining with us is Mrs. Olive Perkins, who united with the church on confession of faith Jan. 13, 1839.

Mr. Dennis H. Quick was the only one of the original members of the church who remained to celebrate its 50th anniversary. He departed April 3, 1881.

On Sabbath, July 1, 1894, the Rev. Thomas Middlemiss of Alpena, Mich., preached in the morning and Rev. S. V. R. McKee of Remington, Ind., in the evening. Large congregations were present to greet those former ministers of this church.

On Monday, July 2, the members and friends assembled in the church to celebrate the 60th anniversary. The services were opened by singing the hymn, "I love thy kingdom, Lord." Prayer by Rev. Mr. Hood, both by Miss Emily Adams, "My God, my Father." An account of the early anniversary of the organization of the church was read by Mr. John W. Perry. A historical sketch of the church was given by the pastor. A necrological list for use last ten years was read, and is as follows:

James E. Hunter,	Mrs. Helen James,
Mrs. Hannah Irving,	Mason L. James,
Dennis H. Quick,	John V. Sunderlin,
Andrew D. V. Quick,	Abram Smith,
Mrs. Sarah Spraguo,	Ira Toms,
Mrs. A. D. Stickney,	Mrs. Eliza B. Adams,
Mrs. E. G. Parrott,	Mrs. Mary P. Hunter,
Hiram Daniels,	Benjamin Thorne,
Miss Clara Simonson,	Mrs. Phebe Hewitt,
Mrs. R. G. Beach,	Mrs. Susan Stevens,
Miss Emily Hall,	Andrew D. Wallace,
Alvin D. Simonson,	William Simonson,
Ephraim Perkins,	Mrs. Olive Perkins,
Mrs. Louisa Cromwell,	Mrs. Nancy K. Holman.

Rev. S. V. McKee then spoke of the Presbyterian church in Pontiac, Mich., Rev. T. Middlemiss presented some interesting incidents connected with the Presbyterian church abroad. Rev. James McCracken represented the Reformed Presbyterian church, Rev. Mr. Bird Whitehead of his early associations with Presbyterians. Rev. Jesse Kingsley presented the greetings of the Methodist church. An interesting letter from Mrs. A. R. Hastings was read. The services were closed by the singing of a hymn and the benediction by Rev. T. Middlemiss.

During the social that followed ice cream was served.

Among the old friends from abroad who were present, were Mr. Ross a former resident of Birmingham, who for many years a Sunday School Missionary in Northern Michigan, and Mr. and Mrs. Brownell of Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Brownell signified their continued interest in their former church home by the gift to the church of a piece of land joining the church lot.*

BLUE RIBBON RACES.

ABOUT 250 HORSES WILL TAKE PART IN THE MEETING.

It Will Be the Grandest Harness Meeting Ever Held in Any Grand Circuit City.

For nearly three weeks the new track of the Detroit Driving Club has been the scene of some very fast miles as the work outs taken by horses which are named to start in the Blue Ribbon races beginning next Monday and continuing through the week. Trainers are delighted with the track and express astonishment that it could be put in such perfect shape in so short a time. It is as solid as though it had stood the seasoning of two winters, and still is as elastic that horses do not sore a particle when asked to extend themselves and let go, all of their speed through the home stretch.

Entries for the meeting closed on July 7 and every section of the country sent in representatives to fatten for the rich inducements. Including the two consolations there are 248 entries, which makes the average about 12 to a race, insuring even better contests than were those of a year ago. In quality the list is the finest that has ever been published for a six days' meeting, and there is no danger but that the track will have several records before the week is over.

A casual glance at the entries shows the class of horses that are to compete. In the 2:07 class, for which all are Gay, Flying Jib, Online, Robert J., Reflector, Ethel V. and Bellini are the top notchers for all trot on the day following (Directum barring Alix). Fayette Bells Fay, Mamie Scott, Hamlin's Nightingale, Pamlico and Walter Wood are the 2:12 classers for which fifteen racers filed admirably and are on Friday's card. Seven horses figure in the free-for-all candidates in other cities.

Nearly all the payments in the stakes were kept up and the list is a notable one, among them the sensational three-year-old Directum, 2:08¾, and Charmaine, the Kalamazoo entry in the great Horseman Ed. Geers' string, which is also here.

Satisfactory arrangements have been made with the street railway company so that there will be no trouble in landing the Grounds at the track without inconvenience, and the weather is the only thing now needed to make the inaugural of the club a brilliant success.

Miss Ethel Beattie closed a very successful term of school at Wing Lake on Friday last and on the Fourth picnicked with the Dr. Parkers, their parents and friends on the banks of Walnut Lake and a very enjoyable day was spent.

There was no booming cannon, anvils or discharge of fire arms and but few fireworks to mark the opening of the Fourth here.

Amelia Rives Chanler has changed in appearance, and her figure has lost its girlish lines. Her hair, which was once very light in hue, has grown somewhat dark, and there is a plump and matronly look about the author-wife that explains that more settled and tranquil character of her recent fiction.

Beatrice Harraden, the author of "Ships That Pass in the Night," is a hopeless invalid, whose literary work is accomplished sentence by sentence, as any exertion prolonged over five minutes is exhausting. ARE YOU GOING TO PAINT?

We have made the study of the manufacture of Ready Mixed Paints our business for years, and have now by scientific application and a close study to the subject that is pleasing to us, furnished a product that is simply perfect in every detail for a house covering.

Paint, Paint, Paint!

House painting the past few years has been very discouraging to those who use lead and oil, do where you may, but any brand you please of either lead or oil, have it applied by the best painters on earth and the wear of that job is unsatisfactory. It checks let, it peels off, it becomes discolored, fades out, washes off and in an incredible short space of time before one is ready for it the job has to be performed all over again at a great expense.

Read! Read!! Read!!!

How can you avoid all sorrow, discouragement and expense? The answer is plain. Use ou Paint—Boydell Bros'. White Lead & Color Co's

Extracts From Letters.

Have used hundreds of gallons of Boydell Ready Mixed Paint and it is all right. It is as good as the makers claim it to be and its staying qualities as good as any paint we ever used.
WM. FAHEY, Contractor Painter and Decorator.

It think it superior to any other manufactured and better even than the best lead and oil for durability. It will never check or peel but always keeps its body and has a wonderfully good body.
ELMER J. MONROE, House Painter and Decorator.

Myself and son have used 86 gallons and it gave us ENTIRE satisfaction.
SILAS H. WATTLES.

I would recommend Boydell Bros' Paints to all those who desire a good, desirable and lasting paint. I have used 50 gallons of Boydell's Paints and have no complaint to make.
EUGENE BECKLEY.

I am much pleased with the paint. Have used about 40 gallons, and never saw paint that had such a gloss. Would certainly use it in preference to any other and am pleased with it
J. W. HARRALL.

Boydell Bros' Paint mixed will cover more surface gallon for gallon, and I shall use it again when I paint my house.
ALLEN BALDWIN.

After using over 40 gallons of Boadell's Paints, I say use the best and that is, I believe, Boydell's Ready Mixed Paint.

"SONG OF THE INDIAN RIVER."

Kissed by sunshine, lulled by breezes,
Lies mine own, my native land,
With the waves from Gulf and Ocean,
Fairest fruit and flower to crown her,
Florida the Southern Queen.

Northern boatmen, leave your rivers
That the Frost King bridges o'er,
Here he rules not, I am ready,
Waiting for your guiding oar.
And the life of ice forgetting,
Glittering with rainbow hues,
Far exceeds your wildest fancy—
All I offer—yours to choose.

Warmer grow my heart, and warmer,
Glad my days and full of mirth,
Till, at last, my journey ended—
Rush to Florida.

Do I lie, her shores caressing
Through the sun kissed happy hours—
Let the Indian River know you,
To the dream-like Land of Flowers!
