An editor took 264 days per year to get out 52 issues of a paper; that's labor. Once in a while somebody pays for a year's subscription; that's capital; and once in a while some one-of-a-kind of a dead beat takes the paper for a year or two and vanishes without paying for it; that's anarchy; but later on justice will overtake the dead beat creator, for there is a place where he will get his deserts; that's horrible.—E. K.

To the teachers and school officers of Oakland county: The Public Schools' Manual for Oakland County, containing a list of directors, names of pupils and wages paid in each of the district schools; list of teachers, time and place of examinations, county school exhibit, etc., is now ready for distribution.

A story has been told us, from the County Line, about a man named Martin, Sr., who uses kerosene oil in stead of water to wash in, when he visits neighboring towns.

What a shame that so few, almost none, of our boys responded to the call to clean up the school yard; and what a shame that the father and mother did not send the boys. Such a thing will not make public spirited men.

Mr. Casius Merrill, son of Mrs. R. T. Merrill, whose home is at the Marine Hotel, was a member of the choir at the Southfield road and the other for a crosswalk on Maple, avenue between Park corner and the fountain?

Where, Oh, where, are the Hebrew children? Where, Oh, where, are those commonly signed petitions, one for the improvement of the north end of the Southfield road and the other for a crosswalk on Maple, avenue between Park corner and the fountain?
