MICHIGAN MATTERS.

EX-DEPUTY SECRETARY OF STATE LINDHOLM ARRESTED.

Charged with Forgery and Embezzlement—Fled to Europe—Returned by Frank Professon' Terrible Mistake—Peach Trees Affected by the Yellows—The State Fair at Detroit—Other State Happenings.

Lindho'm Arrested.

Ex-Deputy Secretary of State August W. Lindholm, who fled the state the late last March after embezzling $3,000 of the funds of the state, was arrested at Gothenberg, Sweden, and held in await the action of Gov. Rich. This information was conveyed to the governor in a telegram from Secretary of State Gresham, who had been advised by Minister Ferguson at Stockholm. The governor in the telegraphed was secretary Gresham that Lindholm was wanted here, and will have him extradited. Ever since Lindholm's escape the authorities have been quietly searching for him, and through the postal officials learned that on July 4 a letter had been mailed by Lindholm at Keil of Holstein to his wife in Lansing. Deputy Sheriff Hinkley and Chief of Police Sanford immediately sent circulars offering a reward of $100 in gold for information leading to his apprehension. The telegram is the first heard from them. Prosecuting Attorney Gardner said that Lindholm will be promptly prosecuted on the embezzlement charge, and also that he undoubtedly knows all about the forgeries and criminal frauds, and that his testimony in the pending cases is of great importance.

Ready for the Fair at Detroit.

There promises to be an unusually large display of farm implements and vehicles at the state fair, which opens on the Detroit Exposition grounds September 10, and continues until September 21. W. P. Custard, of Addison, is superintendent of farm implements, and H. E. Dewey, of Lansing, has charge of the department of vehicles. The fair will not be open evenings, the hours being from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. The admission will be placed at 50 cents, a project to make it 25 cents having been discarded as not feasible. There may be one or two special 25-cent days, however. No additional charges will be made for any exhibit inside of the grounds. The horse and bicycle races are exciting much interest. Six days will be given up to the trotters, pacers and runners, horses —September 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19. There are 26 premiums offered in the children's department, for the best hand machine sewing, patching, darning, embroidery, crochet and knit work, doll's wardrobe, patchwork, and other materials, paper flowers, collections of postage stamps, pencil sawing, wood carving, drawing, samples of canned goods, etc.

Terrible Mistake.

Frank Professon shot and instantly killed his wife. The tragedy occurred in Portage township, seven miles south of Kalamazoo. During the night a fight commenced falling and Mrs. Professon awoke and went to the door to open window. In the meantime her husband aroused and saw his wife coming through the open door leading to the bedroom. He had not missed her from bed, and mistook her for a burglar. Reaching for his revolver, which was near at hand, he fired. The shot was fatal, the ball passing through Mrs. Professon's body near the heart. She exclaimed: "Frank, you have shot me," and sank to the floor. The husband is prostrated with grief.

A Deserted Camp.

The closing of camp Rich after one of the most successful encampments ever held, furnished many scenes, unique and interesting as any during the five days outing. While all were hurrying about each other's headquarters, by good bye, the men took advantage of the relaxed discipline to indulge in good-natured jokes. Capt. Henry C. Dummer, of Company B, Fifth regiment, against whom charges were preferred by Col. Frank R. Lyon, handed his resignation to Gen. Owen. Col. Lyon appointed Lieut. Fred W. Hodskin to take command of the company on the return trip to Manistee.

Peach Trees Affected by Yellows.

Peach Yellows Commissioner Albert Southworth makes public an announcement that has much serious results wrapped up in the non-acceptance of the impression than any six months drought that might overspread this entire peach belt. He has marked 25 peach trees in his orchard to be cut down and burned as soon as they are badly affected by the yellows. Every fruit grower knows from experience of 15 years ago that this terrible fruit scourge is dealt with as vigorously as though it were small pox their entire orchards. If two years will be dead, and none but sickly fruit will be yielded in the meantime.

SENATE AND HOUSE.

Final Action of the President Awaited on the Tariff Bill.

The final action of the president on the tariff bill is the only thing that stands between the senate and final adjournment. It is the expectation that with the bill passed upon by the chief executive adjournment could be accomplished within a few days. That last of the appropriation bills receives the final consideration of the senate during the afternoon. The house of representatives is ready to take up its work has been completed, it is only awaiting the action of the senate and the president. It is probable that it will adjourn from day to day until congress adjourns.

Want a Correction in the Tariff Bill.

Importers and merchants at San Francisco claim a great injustice has been made in the tariff bill. Under the proposed law, cocoanut oil is admitted free, but copra, which is the raw material of which the cocoanut oil is manufactured is subject to a duty of 30 per cent. Copra is the dried meat or product of the cocoanut and cannot be used for any other purpose than making cocoanut oil, which is largely used in the manufacture of soap. Copra is not prepared and cannot be used as a dessicated cocoanut and has always been duty free. Twelve leading firms have united in telegraphing a protest to Washington, and it is hoped that what they believe to be an error made through ignorance of the articles in question.
