James McAllister Randall of this place who is looking after the nomination for county clerk on the Republican ticket this year—and looking after it with all his energy and thoroughness for which he has been prominently mentioned as a candidate for official honor on the Republican ticket from the township of Bloomfield had been nominated, there would be a change; for anyone else in the county, but as we cannot possibly have more than one or two, it behooves 'em all to hustle. Mac will surely make a good run for the nomination and if he secures it, will make an excellent county clerk as his past record for efficient service as township clerk and in other capacities will abundantly justify him.

Said an ex-farmer the other day to me: "I would not be his neighbor and who would not to move to our lovely village." "Now don't leave the farm and expect to bring all your stock with you. Leave your pigs, chickens, cows, etc., you can buy eggs and milk cheaper than you can keep them and you can't keep them and the good will of your neighbors, too." "I would not be his neighbor and who would not to move to our lovely village." "Now don't leave the farm and expect to bring all your stock with you. Leave your pigs, chickens, cows, etc., you can buy eggs and milk cheaper than you can keep them and you can't keep them and the good will of your neighbors, too."

The first Sunday school rally ever in Oakland county was held at Orchard Lake one day last week and was a glittering success, the crowd numbering over 12,000 an estimate furnished by the officers of the school. There were sent to friends for miles and it was a hot, dry, dusty gathering. The religious part of the program was excellent and very nicely carried out by the spirit of the occasion was broadly represented by a bar close by and a herd of swine bled, target shooting, Aunt Abby's cigar speeches and all the wicket devices which you will see in the various circuses, etc. We did not invest in anything.

Recherter, our sister village neighbor, is settling the question of a water works plant and last Saturday afternoon, a committee of four gentlemen, Messrs Harvey J. Miller, Reuben Quinn, Wm. Landon and J. F. Jackson visited our town for the purpose of investigating our water supply. They were well accompanied by their visit, every furnishing all the information possible and we trust in a short time Recherter will have water. It is our hope to have all the water supply works in a city and it pays a town and it pays a village but it is our hope to have all the water works.

In these terribly dry times the risk of fire is to time greater than in times of ordinary moisture. The slightest spark from a passing engine or from carelessness in the use of matches is liable to start a conflagration which may sweep everything before it. It is our hope to have all the water works in a city and it pays a town and it pays a village but it is our hope to have all the water works.

An effort is being made by the Republicans of Michigan to get the Representative convention held this year. And why shouldn't we have this? We have a good deal for such purposes. The issue is right in the center of the district and there is a great number of delegates than any point in the district. Recherter has the honor of Senatorial convention and Pontiac the honor of the Representative convention. A convention by all means and thereby secure a large attendance of delegates.

The Presbyterian Sunday school give a grand basket picnic to Detroit and Belle Isle on Friday, August 31st, (Friday) the boys declare that they will return after a brief visit among friends and relatives in the "Emerald Isle."
