171, 173, 175 WOODWARD AVENUE, DETROIT.

THE HORRIBLE GAME.

As Presented by Tom's Nerve Base and Mitchell's Hot Blood.

We had intended to give the game presented by the Horrible last week full, but the press notices as given by the News and Detroit Courier give the game a more complete description.

The Detroit Courier is a great baseball center. Yesterday the "barkers, butchers, barbers, taxors and the merchants of the town played a game in the hotel attire, to the intense amusement of the spectators. While the players were all in the game, they were in the game, they were in the game.

The Detroit Courier is a great baseball center. Yesterday the "barkers, butchers, barbers, taxors and the merchants of the town played a game in the hotel attire, to the intense amusement of the spectators.

Syrup and Molasses at Rock Bottom Figures.

Have you tried Jones & McClellan's Moss Rose brand of Flour? We sell it.

Erity & Nixon's best brand of Flour we always keep for sale.

We keep a choice and well supplied stock of Groceries, Canned Goods, Pickles and everything to please the careful housekeeper. Prices always low.

A Word Confidentially:

Why don't you ask for one of those credit cards where you can have every purchase punched out except sugar and when you have the check finished, walk off with a complete set of World's Fair Vouchers or one of those beautiful Pastels, framed, with glass complete, without one cent of expense? Think it over and begin at once. Ask for a card. We are only too glad to give it to you.

Again, we are always glad to show goods, explain and describe whatever you wish to purchase or not.

Yours respectfully,
WHITEHEAD & MITCHELL.
