in a very short time a well in the village used for drinking purposes will be unheard of.

The announcement that a lady living in Milwaukee owns a Bible brought over in the Mayflower, will probably be followed by some Boston family putting in a claim for the book.

The young Duke of Marlborough liked Kentucky so well that he said he would make it another visit and buy some blooded stock after he begins to handle the Vanderbilt money.

A party of young people gathered at the home of John G. Daniels, Troy, last Friday night. Dancing and card playing were kept up until the "wee hours" and a very pleasant time is reported.

of Lotta B. Hall. A class is already formed and a number of pupils are taking advantage of this chance to study eloquence under the direction of a competent and a celebrated artist in her profession.

Mrs R. W. Simpson, of Evanston, Ill., who has a host of acquaintances among the young people of this village, is visiting among them and renewing many agreeable friendships with all who remember her better as Miss Libbie Haathorne. She thinks Birmingham steadily improves, but wouldn't trade her home at Evanston for any other town in the U. S.

solved the whole question and made our old friend David happy beyond description by taking him home with him, where he will get just as good care as Myron does himself.

An exchange says it's more fun to see a man read a puff of himself in a newspaper than to see a fat man slip on a banana peel. The narrow man reads it seven or eight times and then goes around and appropriates all copies he can. The kind-hearted man goes home and reads it to his wife, then pays up his dues to the paper. The successful business man who advertises regularly and makes by it, starts to find the editor and then the two men walk silently and thoughtfully down the street together, and the
