J. somebody is wearing E. Wiley Pitkin's hat—charged at church Sunday morning and Bin with half a mile left dead dogs on the field of battle and then lying on the field, the coop in safety.

Why, then, we ask, isn't it a good thing? To show your appreciation of this fact, why not call at the basement of the church on New Years eve and get a prize good supper it a very small expense and now you get the new folks can do without the (henary) aid of petticoats?
