

A WOMAN'S NERVES.

THE STORY OF A WOMAN TO WHOM NOISE WAS TORTURE.

Prostrated By the Least Excitement—

[From the Gate City, Keokuk, Iowa.]
Mrs. Helen Meyers, whose home is at 3515 Vernon avenue, Chicago, and whose visit to Keokuk, Ia., will long be remembered, was at one time afflicted with a nervous malady which at times drove her nearly to distraction. "Those terrible headaches are a thing of the past," she said the other day to a Gate City representative, "and there is quite a story in connection with it, too.

Medical Triumphs.
(From the Detroit News.)

The prevalence of kidney complaints and maladies of the bladder and urinary tract, such as lame back, backache, neuritis, worry, and listless feelings, has started many a person to look for a remedy. The only successful answer after many years of preparation has at last been found in a scientific and practical method of relieving the kidneys as the only setting of the trouble. This is a strong statement but can be proved by the following facts: I was born in Detroit. Read what Max Fleury, of 336 Chestnut St. says: "About a month ago I was attacked with a severe attack of kidney complaint, the pain arose from the back and spread to the bladder. I finally grew so bad I was compelled to get out. This was on a Friday and on Saturday I was unable to get out of bed. I called on a kidney pills which I began taking right away. I was able to get up the next day and I was able to get up at the ground again. As I took no other medicine at the time the result of my

A Pertinent Paragraph.

"Our country if right, should be kept right, if wrong should be put right," is a political maxim which paraphrased applies to other conditions of life, thus: our health if right, should be kept right; if wrong should be put right, especially in bodily ailments, such as pains and aches, which St. Jacobs Oil promptly cures.
