

STRONG

Depend upon your rich, red, nourishing, strengthening blood. The nerve force that sustains the brain, the life that they are weak. It is because they do not receive the nutriment needed. The true way for nervousness will not be found in opiate or sedative compounds. These only delay the symptoms.

"My wife suffered many years with various troubles, severe headaches, inability, nervousness, and other ailments. She was treated by different doctors, and tried different remedies, but she was worse for her than anything else. We consider Hood's Sarsaparilla a most indispensable medicine for family use, and for all impure blood, in fact, it is a wonderful health restorer. My wife has recovered from her illness, and she is now as healthy as a horse. We have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and it has done for her what no other medicine has done. Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. Price, 50 cents a bottle. Hood's Sarsaparilla is made at Lowell, Mass., U.S.A."

"Now," he went on, "while you are at it, I trust, unimpeded by drink or excess? He smiled, and said, "I am not a good and so gifted a person. Like an ostrich, as you say, I do not know of it. Tell me now, something, gently and delicately, about your year's history."

"I told him all. When I related my first love affair, he listened intently, and then with some fresh question he brought me back to the present. He asked me, 'What is the history of my appetite, to which I gave a satisfactory answer. When I had finished my story, he said, 'I have heard that all traces of the drink are now gone from your system. How do you feel now?'"

"I am well," he said, "but I am not a good and so gifted a person. Like an ostrich, as you say, I do not know of it. Tell me now, something, gently and delicately, about your year's history."
