5 Cents A Year

If 5 cents a year is too much for "the salt that's all salt," that is not the ordinary kind of salt with dirt and moisture impurities in it. You don't think much about salt because it's pure, so little. You needn't ask one of three world's users of the best—

Diamond Crystal Salt

the only absolutely pure salt. It is just as pure as it can be made. Sold by the grocer in the handy sanitary box. Send for booklet.

Rudyard Kipling to Return to India.

Rudyard Kipling will shortly return to India where he will prepare for the forthcoming publication of articles to appear in the American and English editions of that magazine. In the course of the most interesting interview which he has been induced to write of late years, he tells us that he has written a screaking play and a novel of a sensational character.

Perhaps the most beautiful series of pictures ever presented in the Rocky Mountains will be found in a collection of 100 original drawings by Thomas Moran, of the Moran Bros. Lithographing Co. To those who have visited the Rockies, this issue of the Cosmopolitan will be a welcome reminder of the grandeur and beauty of the mountains. To those who have never been there, it will be a revelation. This number contains articles by Thomas Moran, Oliver Herford, Ian Beard, H. M. Alden, Prof. Alexander Winchell, Frederick J. Hill, Joaquin Miller, Joseph Emmett Sherwood, besides six interesting illustrated poem stories of a character which will present Mr. Moran's work in its natural environment. The cover design is by Mr. Moran, and the frontispiece will be a reproduction in many colors of one of the most striking of Mr. Moran's pictures. The Cosmopolitan for May will present for May its usual number of short stories, and a very good one by Jacques Futrelle, author of "The Chase of the Golden Plate." Other contributors will be Edwin Markham, Ella Wheeler Wilcox, Clara Barton, Roger W. Nye, and T. C. Crawford.
