For advertising letters. The following is a list of letters remaining unclaimed in the post-office at Birmingham, Mich., for the week ending June 15, 1895.

Children's Day was observed at the Methodist church Sunday. The children were very happy and enjoyed the day very much.

Visitors lately at Hazelwood. Mrs. J. H. Hazelwood, of Hazelwood, Mich., was in town lately. She was very well and enjoyed the visit.

Notice—Fruit Growers. In regard to the sale of nursery stock in this vicinity during the present season, I wish to call attention to the fact that the stock is of the best quality and at very low prices.

Good Thing—Push It Along. The following verse was handed to us by Mrs. E. G. Keyes and was composed by a relative of hers who had it printed on a slip of paper with her name attached as follows:

This Book Belongs To. If you have borrowed a friend, be sure to study to read, but do not forget to return it. It is a good thing to have a book, but it is a better thing to have it read.

A good idea for book owners to have such slips printed and paste inside of all their books.
