Mrs. Jennie Kyles is spending her summer in Detroit with her sister Flora. To say that she is having a royal good time only about half expresses it.
 The Ladies' League Society has just published their elegant book, "The Woman's Progress." It is a book that every woman can read and be proud of what woman did.

Those in charge of our village come they have been much annoyed by some recent acts of vandalism. Two parties have been blamed for the destruction of trees, trees, etc., that it has taken years to propagate. Another has driven upon one of the sections in direct violation of rules. These persons are well known and the executive committee has decided that some action will be taken in the matter.

BLUE RIBBON WEEK.
