

WHYTEHEAD & MITCHELL
All the world loves her happy man...

BREVETS ABOUT MICHIGAN PEOPLE AND THINGS.

We never heard anybody but men say that women dare to please the men.

There is hope even for Per. The federal government has crossed the first time...

Spelling reform will never make much progress in Philadelphia.

The next time a bomb is thrown in Russell Sage's office he will retain enough presence of mind to pick out an ill-proper clerk for a shield.

Mendel Howard, an American, was convicted of forgery in London, recently, and sentenced to two years imprisonment.

Lisa, a query whether Mr. Gladstone, following the fall of Rosebery, fell down and died, or merely roundly falling eyeght or because of increasing foresight.

Under the Nebraska liquor law, which is now in full force and effect in that state, each liquor will have to carry its own screen. The cotton umbrella market will probably have a boom.

Harvard University, the oldest of American colleges, has gone to the United States department for one of its "oversers" - Dr. Theodore Roosevelt to that highly dignified position.

If this rule excluding wheels from the big office buildings was made to apply to the cars of creditors and merry rounds, there is danger that some of the Chicago sky-scrapers will be left tenanted.

Gov. Wertz has appointed a dead man to this. This is not an improvement on the Chicago plan. There the dead men drew a salary under one Chicago administration but not appointment was made out.

A New York man was sent to jail on a disorderly charge professed by his wife, which he said, grew out of his refusal to do the washing and ironing.

How can China get any part of the war indemnity which it may pay unless the United States is compelled to go to foreign banks to float its last $50,000,000 loan?

It costs the Sultan of Turkey and his numerous family $200,000 per annum to keep at the head of the Bosphorus. The sum will not be appreciated when the entire court demand a change of sultans every year.

The report of the Postoffice Department shows that the use of bicycles by express carriers is a thing to be deprecated $5,000 a year in car fares.

The blower girls have complaints in their faltering throats. In Lake, Iowa, two men in bicycle clothes were refused admittance to a hotel because of the noise they made.

Milwaukee authorities are investigating a case of two little children, one family who were recently having insurance policies on their lives.

Three little boys in a peculiar accident were killed in the Torrent and the canal.

Suppose a young man riding a horse should assume the look of a rider of the average bicycle rider. He would have as much reason for it as the bicyclist. They sit gracefully on the saddle.

There is hope even for Per. The federal government has crossed the first time it tried to pass a bill through the Custom House.

Spelling reform will never make much progress in Philadelphia. The Quakers wouldn't fancy setting the name of their city spot "Philadelphia."

The next time a bomb is thrown in Russell Sage's office he will retain enough presence of mind to pick out an ill-proper clerk for a shield.

Mendel Howard, an American, was convicted of forgery in London, recently, and sentenced to two years imprisonment. And there is no pardon bond for Lisa.
