To say that a man is too old to ride a bicycle is to state an absurdity. Wheeling is easier than walking, and when a man gets too old to walk he is ready to die. And he is never ready to do that.—Wheelman's Gazette.

Mrs. Linda Folks, now Mrs. Woods, of Nebraska, was looking in on old friends the other day after an absence of 12 years. The years must be shorter there, for she seems not a year older than when she presided over the youth of our village.

Field day in Birmingham seems to be really becoming an annual thing and we hope it will continue to be an established fact and hope in the future to see it officially recognized and every body turn out and have a good time for once in the year at least.

Over $40 were the receipts of the races and baseball game last Friday. Pretty good, but with a little more interest and preparation by the leaders such an affair could bring the receipts up to $75. Think it over and be better prepared next year, to-ya.

Hurrah for German! He is the tallest corn grower yet heard from, for early Sunday morning when we came down to begin business, Frank had his stalk of corn located and settled. It was high joe disputed and measures just 13 feet and well eared. The first man to tell a story don't never stand a show.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church will give an entertainment Friday evening, September 6. They have secured Fred W. Yarnall, a Japanese student at Dr. Parks University, Indiana, to deliver a lecture. A small admission fee will be charged. It is hoped that the church will be filled with people to greet the young Japanese.

McA. Randall is up in the northern country at Lovell and shipping in immense quantities of pine to Detroit. Parks & Randall are also getting them cheap. They received 100 bushels Saturday last and they were all sold in a remarkably short space of time. Chas. E. Hulsell had a cartload at his business trust at the depot for sale Monday last and it went fast.

The Page Fence Giants after being defeated by Hunt and Holly came to Pilking last week and mopped the earth with Parkins club to the tune of 11 to 0. There is then as says it takes only $30 to win a game from the Giants—all we think it necessary and cheap enough for $30 than have so many extra players to try to do it. Study economy, boys.

The editorial rooms of the Woman's Exponent are fast assuming a business appearance. Typewriters, Miss Abbott taken on the door, but we walked in. Hosts of the walking two long suits, one of Birmingham people who do all within an hour. Birmingham persons who don't. Those who had a long list and we had just begun to read the list before we were asked by the whole editorial staff, advertising agents, reporters, etcetera laden with manuscript. Each one ready to do the door act——we went.

F. F. Richardson, the popular son of Vacuum, will start the first part of the coming week for a presumably enjoyable trip to the home of his childhood at Edinburg, N. Y. His birthday occurs on the 15th of September, when he will be 60 years old. He don't look it, does he? He will join a family party already on hand at the lake where he expects to meet two sisters and two brothers all of whom are older than himself, and who are said to look even younger than Mr. Richardson.

Frank Ford, Bert Peabody and Dan Bissett left for the wild and woolly west last Saturday. They will take the Northern at Detroit, thence via Duluth and the Northern Pacific to Washington, making short brief but not short satisfactory detour through the Yosemite Park and incidentally kill a great big afair of elk, caribou, moose, wapiti, and deer and antelope. Success and happiness to them and may they come back safe and hale and hearty in due time.

To-day is a high disgrace throughout all Israel by arresting the Salvation Army and keeping them in jail from Saturday night until Monday afternoon for breaking a city ordinance compelling them to keep off Saginaw street on account of their great devotions. It has raised a commotion the like of which Pontiac never saw before and we are getting cockles to death to think that it still and by the lassies having the gates open city and ever body free. "Rah for the Salvation Army."

Editor F. S. Fitch, of the Post, makes the following announcement, dissolving the co-partnership and that Post will hereafter be owned and conducted by the firm of Fitch & Coleman.—The present editor and manager of the Post has made arrangements to sell in all outstanding stock in the Post publishing Company, to purchase the same, and assume the responsibility of the paper after 1st. Begins to look as if the electric road was surely coming and we can't help it, although there are those who are very much opposing, see it coming. Some gentlemen, if you can't stand the prosperity you'll have to move back on the rear streets. That's what good old Elder Hill used to say, when the unwarranted outrage of sidewalks in our village was first proposed and prompts set down upon by the good villagers, and [illegible] time. By the way, wonder what the elder would say if he could see even the little improvements of our village for the past twenty years

A DAY OF SPORT.

BIRMINGHAM'S FIELD DAY A MOST SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR.

Nearly a Thousand People Witnessed the Terrible Horrible Ball Game—Bike Races Good—Dance Well Attended.

All roads led to Birmingham last Friday and on every one of them might have been seen pedestrians and vehicles of all kinds hastening toward our usually quiet village for the purpose of taking in the annual fieldday events. Nothing happened to mar the festivities and as far as can be learned everybody was highly pleased with the day's sport.

The first thing on the program to claim the attention of the crowd was the bicycle races which came off on the Daniels track, just south of the village, and were very good exhibitions of what our local riders can do. The races were run in the following order:

The first, a two mile race, had four starters, Will Benedict, Ed. Parks, Fred Perkins and Thomas Cobb. Benedict drew the pole. At the first half Benedict was in the lead, Perkins second, Parks third, Cobb fourth. At the third half Perkins first, Cobb second, Parks third, Benedict fourth. At the finish Cobb won by two rods, Perkins second, Parks third, Benedict won last quarter. The prizes were: pair of shoes, second box of cigars, third jewelry purse. Time 6.48

In the next event, half mile race, there were three entries, Cobb, Nye and Carter with positions in the order named. Nye lead throughout and won by 10 feet, Cobb a good second, Carter third. The prizes were: third quarter of lamb, second 12 shaves, third sack of flour. Time, 1.28

The next event was not down on the program but was made up at the track between Cobb and Benedict, all with a purse of $1.50 to first and $1 to second. There were seven starters, Pat Bidwell, G. Buck, Burt Granger, Henry Vosbiss, Schiller, Ed McQuarrie and Chet Marvin. Bidwell won this race, Vosbiss second. Time, 2.57.

The next race was the best of all and was a beautiful contest. The distance was five miles with six contestants with positions as named, Carter, Cobb, Benedict, Buck, Nye, Perkins. Cobb set the pace Nye second, Perkins third, Parks fourth, Carter fifth, Benedict sixth. These positions were not changed as half after half was made but in the third mile Carter began crowding Parks for fourth place. This order was not changed until the stretch was reached in the fifth mile when Perkins shot from third to first place and beat the others out by a few feet. Nye second, Parks third, Carter fourth, Parks fifth while Benedict brought up the rear. The prizes were first diamond pin, second diamond stud, third box of cigars, fourth six bottles, fifth pair of gloves. Benedict by coming in last in all the races won the consolation prize, a bottle of pills. The time in this race was 17.48.

The judges in the above events were Stephens, Foster and Hall & Co.

Immediately after the races the great crowd hurried over to the ball grounds and seats in the grand stand were soon at a premium and those who were unable to secure seats, ranged themselves along the fences to wait for the coming of the ball players. At last a small lady with the eye glass do a crack in the home game which is well to delight as they have been in sight and the crowd yelled in concert as they entered the grounds and made a circuit of the bases. The last player to put in an appearance was a four bricked down holes who had only very delightful outfit, clothes and carried the customary empty tomato can for the purpose of dipping off what few drops of beer he might be able to find in the dregs in front of saloons, put there for advertising purposes. This aroused much enthusiasm and the D. B. A. who carried off the prize, a box of cigars, for being the best dressed player in the entire game. The suits of the other players were very grotesque, even tom-mers and undressed saints being on hand. One player evidently meant to keep cool as the feature of his suit was paper flour sacks. After admiring the crowd to see how well they could play the ball in a short practice game, the nines took their respective places, the Horribles at bat, and the great game was on. Will Stephens was umpire and looked after the interests both teams in a fair and impartial manner.

We give the first inning complete for short but it was played and it any one takes a fancy made we hope that none of it will be held against us as we aware that it is unintentional on our part.

Phil Schlack went to first on a hit, stole second and third and went home on Leonard's hit. Leonard stole second and third. Buell hit by pitcher and sent to first. Campbell made a hit, Leonard scored. Buell went to second, Campbell stole second, Ed Parks given a base on balls. Buell who had reached third, scored on a pass ball. Campbell scored. Art Nash put out at first. Ed. Parks scored on Johnson's hit. Johnston stole second and third. Whiting struck out and Johnson scored on a hit by Shadbolt. Schlack's hit advances Shadbolt to third who scores on a hit by Leonard. Schlack goes to third and Leonard to second. Buell gets a base on balls and Schlack scores on a passed ball. Leonard and Buell both score on Parks' son's hit. Parks goes to second and to first on a throw to third, during the stole. Total 13 runs.

Battery of this inning George Hoff man and Sam Hanna.

The Horribles now then drawn up in line and a photograph taken of the group.

The Terribles then went in with Toms at bat who was given a base on balls, stole second, took third on a wild pitch Nye gets a base on balls, goes to second on Hanna's hit and Toms to third, Nye scores on a pass ball. Hanna steals third and scores. Masters gets a fly to first on his steals second and goes to third on a pass ball. F. D. Hoffman gets a base on balls and Masters steals home. Dandy steals a send, A. Parks gets a base on balls, Hoffman scores on Reynolds's hit which is put out at second, Parks reaching third. Nye given a base on ball, steals second, goes to third on a passed ball while Parks scores. Toms is given a base on balls, steals second, Nye scores on a pass ball, Toms stole third. Nixon struck out. Toms scores on Hanna's hit who goes to second and third on pass balls. Masters gets a base on balls, goes to second on Hoffman's hit and Hanna scores on a steal. A. Parks gets a base on balls and is forced out at second retiring the side. Reynolds reached first but it was of no use. Total 10 runs.

Battery for this inning, Leonard and Schlack.

In the first inning Toms pitched and the Horribles failed to make a run.

Shadbolt pitched for the Horribles and the Terribles pounded out seven runs.

Third inning Toms in the box and only one run made.

Shadbolt held the Terribles down to three runs.

Fourth inning the Horribles made one run, Toms still doing the tairling.

Off Shadbolt the Terribles made seven runs.

Fifth inning was another shut out for the Horribles Toms pitcher.

Capt. Campbell went into the box for the Terribles found him of six runs.

Sixth inning F. D. Hoffman pitcher, Horribles made three scores.

Leonard back in the box and five runs were added to the Terribles' string.

Seventh inning Nye pitched for the Terribles and the Horribles chalked up four runs.

At this stage of the proceedings the game was called on account of darkness and the Terribles declared the winners by a score of 38 to 19.

The crowd then dispersed, the players going to the National Hotel where an elegant supper was waiting them and for which the Horribles cheerfully settled.

A dance in the evening wound up the day's sport and Birmingham's Field Day was a thing of the past.

Below is those who assisted in making the event a success and to the great crowd who was so liberal in its patronage, the Birmingham base ball club, who received the profits of the day, wishes to return thanks.

ROSTER

Of those bathing suits

Sick your lamps! was the cry that cheered on the torpedo riders.

Wish that you have some "concelaria" at least.

Nye says had his leg held out the result of the five mile race would have been different.

The assist made by King counted just the same.

The great stop made by Shadbolt was worthy of a professional.

Nixon's home run will be the talk of the town for many days.

To all those who are laboring under the impression that Dr. Campbell's great double back action summersault was premeditated, we will say in behalf of the worthy doctor, that it was the spikes on his shoes that caused the (feet) feat.

FALL OPENING.

Your attention is called to my opening of fall millinery, Saturday, Sept. 14, 1895. I have on hand the latest styles and novelties in fancy millinery, to which I invite your inspection. FARM FOR SALE.

Farm of 40 acres in Bloomfield, two miles west and one mile north of Birmingham, known as the Shain farm. For particulars apply on the premises or address L. Hatch Birmingham, Mich.

FALL AND WINTER STYLES.

This week we inaugurate the Fall and Winter season—1895—all the new fashions there are.

Men's Clothes, Children's Clothes,
Young Men's Clothes, Furnishings,
Boys' Clothes, Hats and Caps.

Manufacturers offered big inducements this season to liberal buyers. We bought liberally and extensively. The fact that most houses were looking for the medium made goods only encouraged us to buy the finer grades. They were in the market—we bought them. Large purchasing brought the goods to us at comparatively low prices. We have the better quality. We have crowded the prices down. We know that we can supply your wants to a better advantage than any other house in Michigan, because we are in a better position to do so. It is not what you pay, but the values you get for your money.

Order by mail. Your orders will be as carefully looked after, as though you purchased in person, and if goods are not satisfactory return them, and we refund money.

A BAD ACCIDENT.

Monday afternoon while Mrs. Dr. C. M. Raynale and her cousin, Miss Lizzie Penman, of Scranton, Pa., were out driving, the horse became frightened at the cars and ran away. At Stephens' corners the carriage struck a post and both ladies thrown violently to the ground. Mrs. Raynale's right leg below the knee was broken, as were also two ribs and her collar bone. Miss Penman's right wrist was broken and both ladies were otherwise badly bruised. They were taken to Mrs. Raynale's home where their injuries were attended to by Dr. J. L. Campbell of this place and Dr. McCarrell of Pontiac. At present writing both ladies are doing as well as could be expected. The horse and carriage were not hurt to any great extent.

A LARGE TOOTH

While workmen were excavating a ditch in a swamp on a farm in the southeastern part of Champaign county, Ill., a few days ago, they dug up a huge tooth which has attracted much attention in that and the adjacent portion of scientific people. The tooth measured 10 inches in length, 5 inches across the face of the crown, and weighed 7½ pounds. When it was brought to this city it was compared with a plaster cast of a mastodonian's tooth in the University of Illinois, and it was found to correspond almost exactly.—Chicago Tribune.—Burlington Hawkeye.
