THE CENTER OF ATTRACTION.

$12, $15, $18

The man with a Traver Overcoat on his person is sure to have the satisfaction of being dressed well—as well as even better, than many a man who pays double the price for his Overcoat.

Impartial investigations have disclosed the fact that materials in Traver's Overcoats are identical with those of your tailor shops. That the workmanship is equal to the best tailor's work—not excepting one—not even the high-class tailor who is paid extra for his reputation.

These $12, $15 and $18 Overcoats are made of Imported Kersey Cloths—Blue, Black, Brown and Oxford Shades. The linings are of good materials, are put in strong and smoothly set. The seams and edges are smoothly stitched and every making detail is perfect.

We have a very strong line of the better class of Ready Made Overcoats in Kerseys, Meltons, Rough-Faced Fabrics and Cover Coatings. These Overcoats are lined with satin or silk, and have the high polish and finish that can only be had by paying a high price—$20 to $35.

HISTORY OF A WEEK.

THE NEWS OF SEVEN DAYS UP TO DATE.

Political, Religious, Social and Criminal. Doings of the Whole World Aggregating. Condensed for Our Readers—The Accident Record.

A special from Antwerp announces the murder at Somerville, N. Y., by Orlin Kinzie of his father, Daniel Kinzie. Orlin Kinzie afterward committed suicide. Kinzie is thought to have been insane.

John Patton received a political quarrel between Charles Goldsmith and Lawrence Buckett at Alexandria, and before it was known how Patton got into the trouble, he had shot Buckett through the heart. Patton was captured and locked up.

A Berlin dispatch says the London Times says that the usually well-informed Schleichers Zeitung reports that the German government mediates sending a mission to endeavor to secure a tract of territory on the coast of China to enable Germany to share in the industrial and commercial development of that country.

The loss by the burning of the West Michigan furniture factory at Holland approximates $150,000; insurance $66,000. The fire through 412 men out of work temporarily.

Reinforcements of 3,000, led by four generals, will start from Spain for the Philippine islands on November 13 to suppress the recent victory of the insurgents there.

The steamer Osham of the Netherlands-American line, which arrived at New York Sunday from Rotterdam, via Hongkong, brought 246 steerage passengers, of whom 167 were Armenians. It is said the immigration authorities will examine closely into the fate of these Armenians under the United States' immigration laws to land here.

St. Peter's Polish Catholic church and parish rectory at Stevens Point, Wis., were entirely destroyed at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, causing a loss of fully $20,000. The property was insured for $10,000.

The largest fire that has occurred in Los Angeles, Cal., in years started late Sunday night in the Foster paper box factory, and before it was subdued over $100,000 worth of property had been consumed.
