HOME NOTES

Thanksgiving Day. Who helped you out your turkey this day?

Buy your ticket for the E. L. Lecture Course and hear Mr. Ferris to night.

The Spring term is like the ever beautiful eastern Spain - all in your eye.

Willie Gillette, of South Bend, Ind., was in town one day last week calling on his many friends.

The company that all seem to have been employed on that week was scarce.

We were very sorry to hear of the continued illness of Mr. Stearns, who has just taken possession of his new home.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. McQuinn, of Southfield, visited at Home last week with Mrs. McQuinn's sister, Mrs. J. W. McKinley.

He died with scalp disease, hair falling out, and genitive indigestion, his use of grass or alcoholic preparations, but after Hall's Hair Restorer.

Another rival to the horse and the mule enter the field when Buffalo street cars began being hauled by power furnished by Niagara Falls.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will occur Tuesday night at 8:00 in the parlors of the W. C. T. U. church.

The entertainment at the M. E. church last Friday evening was largely attended and was presided by the Misses Conner Company.

Senator Cretz of Ohio, cannot be accused of doing on the "new woman" system. He modestly said: "A woman's place is her home, attending to domestic duties."

John W. McKinley, of Detroit, is preparing funeral diriger, mailed on Monday last week. John also represents the Massachusetts Life Insurance Company and is working up quite a business in this neck of the woods.

To-night, Thursday evening, Nov. 26, at 7:30, in the M. E. Church, will be the second entertainment of the E. L. Lecture Course.

The Alpha club gave a surprise to the ladies at home, Lafayette avenue, Wednesday night.

Miss Caroline Dossell gave an impromptu musical, Sunday evening, at the residence of Mr. Warren Collins.

The participants were Miss Z. L. Gagnier, Mabeline Clark, Margaret Sharnett, Annie Alonzo, Jennie Baker, Marion Collins, and Master Earl Jenks.

Michigan is very handy gear, two readings, at the request of those present.

"Patrons who feed pumpkins to hogs should see that the seeds have been extracted," said a prominent farmer.

At several points in the village, log has been dying off by hundreds on account of indigestion caused by pumpkin seeds.

"Kali and Jack" has turned to feeding the grape, now that the potato battle has cooled.

John H. Scott has the thanks of a feminine branch of this firm for a fine gallon of cider made from hard picked sun apples and bottled in minked bottles, upholstered in red velvet.

A pair of brand new rubber boots were stolen from the premises of this Quanton on Monday night, Nov. 16.

The guilty party would do well to replace the boots, or suffer the consequences, or be caught. The owner has an eye on you.

The Educational League, of Detroit, is giving a reception and a banquet at the Hotel Cadillac in Detroit, one day last week and among the 750 teachers present we noticed Miss Mattie Baldwin and Mrs. E. Utter, of this village.

The electric road will go direct to the city by spring. That our street crossings at corner of Maple and Woodward Ave., are a disgrace whenever a rain comes down.

That the eastern part of the city foundry property has been sold. That no town in the state has four literary clubs than ours.

That our village in the state has more of the best of the country than ours. That public sentiment is gaining having season in town.

That our public school ranks among the best in the state. That there are no worse societies in town outside of the churches, managed by women, and all are prosperous.

That we have had a number of fine houses built here this season. That many Detroiters are looking for farms in the country.

That we have good candidates for the position that most town. That we have one of the best local papers in the country.

CARD OF THANKS. We take this opportunity and mode of expressing our thanks to the many friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us through the illness and after the death of our husband and father.

We wish particularly to thank Mrs. Frank G. Gibbs for her extra kindness in caring for our children and for the many kind acts she never let go.

To the inhabitants of Birmingham and the surrounding country: When you make up your mind to have your photo taken, don't fail to visit the studio of Tomlinson, the artistic photographer, Birmingham, where you can get as fine work as there is anywhere in the state of Michigan and my prices are very low for first class work.

I will take a few more of choice winter apples, and barrels of choice winter apples, and few bushels of good potatoes in exchange for work.

Trade at HUDSON'S. It Pays. Ladies' Jackets at Less Beautiful Dinnerware! Than 50c on the Dollar!

The entire stock of one of the leading cloak manufacturers of the country. Every garment made within the last five months and therefore embody all that is new and best in Fashion and Worth.

These are beyond all question the grandest values ever given in high class garments. All new colorings and materials. All sizes.
