THANKS-GIVING TURKEY.

Oh Turkey with crimson jelly and
 Oh Doughnuts and pudding and pie!
 If there is ever a time when we want our turkey to be tender and juicy it is for the Thanksgiving dinner. It is not every housekeeper who knows how to select a turkey, though it is not a difficult matter. The best turkey is one with smooth, black legs with soft, loose spur, and are short and plump. The cooking is fully important as the selection, and the preparation for it should be carefully attended to.
