HOME NOTES.

Don't forget the marriage supper. Miss Bertha Park visited in Pontiac the past week.

Wanted: A good woman for the Simpson farm, 82 acres, 2 miles west of Birmingham.

In the suit before Squire Jones which closed Tuesday, in which James Blake sued K. L. Parsons for $258 for labor performed, the jury gave a verdict in favor of Blake for $258.

The remains of Charles G. Howell were brought from Detroit to Birmingham by a large number of friends.

The annual meeting of the Centenary Society was held last Saturday and the following officers elected.

The Republican club gave an entertainment last week and the members were invited.

The electric road meeting which was held at the town hall, last Saturday afternoon, was a success.

Miss Helen Stevenson, Masters G. and Bud Stevenson, of Detroit, visited the White Oak farm last week.

Walter Hines, Highway 6 Co., of Pontiac, are out with new advt. this week.

Postmaster Hester, of Cheekaw, was "pounded" for a $150 cash while attending a political meeting.

H. Hatch and J. H. Hart start for their new home in Newtown, N. Y. today.

Thos. L. Hanna has resigned as postmaster at V. N. New's store and will travel for a shoe house throughout the length and breadth of Michigan.

If the late Benjamin F. Butler were alive he would greatly enjoy the controversy which has followed the proposition to construct a monument to his memory.

The Eut. Lynn Hydraulic company has carried through to purchase a handsome and useful organ, a necessity for the institution, for which was desired for.

Hoston has been a general handed school teacher at Washington recently, but they haven't apparently succeeded in teaching Congress anything.

Mr. Benjamin Hildreth Harrison, first time to include in numerous checks and he observes the growing lack of the fight between the McKinley and Reed Republicans.

For sale, two Jersey cows, one, a new milch. Also one Jersey calf, acquire of E. S. Brown, one mile south of Birmingham, on Horse St. 41.

Improper and deficient care of the horse and harness is one of the chief causes of the horse and harness business. Escape both by the use of that reliable agent, Hall's Hair Restorer.

The popularity of the "man on horse-back" in this country is attested by several equestrian statues at Washington.

For sale, a dark brown four-year-old bay horse, single and double harness, high-stepping horse. Can be seen on our farm 1 mile east of Birmingham's Adams Road.

There is a marked difference of opinion between Congress and Mr. Mayor. The Mayor says the Coburn deserves recognition as a legislator while the latter announces his purpose to treat them as brigands.

It may be that Bob Ingersoll is admitted to the ranks of the society but freedom of man, but we do not believe that he would hesitate to put a flourish about it if the receipts failed to make it profitable.

Wanted: A good woman for the Simpson farm, 82 acres, 2 miles west of Birmingham. Terms, $500 per year, secured. Inquire at Exchange Bank.

The financial affairs of the Centenary Society seem to be in good condition which seems all in all desirable when we consider that the society has to rely largely for its income on the one dollar a year paid by its members.

The remains of Charles G. Howell were brought from Detroit to Birmingham by a large number of friends.
