

GLADSTONE AT WORK.

A BUSY AND ENERGETIC WITH A PASSION FOR SAVING. Wonderful Power of Concentration—How He Manages to Accomplish a Great Deal in a Short Time—Glimpses of His Life.

HERE writing tables stand in the library and not one of them is for the use of the Westchester Gazette. At one table Mr. Gladstone sits writing many of his letters; the second, standing between the windows, is Mr. Gladstone's political desk. It looks now too neat, too tidy by far for the taste of any Gladstonian politician; the blotting and an unexcused air about it; the pen-wipers, racks, knives and other apparatuses about it, all with a mathematical precision which means want of use, and there is neither note nor ledger to be seen. The chief desk, as it is called for the present, must be numbered among the unoccupied.

THE WHOLE desk is covered with reference books of all shapes and sizes, some with a mathematical precision which means want of use, and there is neither note nor ledger to be seen. The chief desk, as it is called for the present, must be numbered among the unoccupied. But turn to the third, a desk with a mathematical precision which means want of use, and there is neither note nor ledger to be seen. The chief desk, as it is called for the present, must be numbered among the unoccupied.

TURNING GRAY WITH BALDNESS.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. Nearly forty years ago, after my hair had turned gray and began falling out so rapidly that I was threatened with immediate baldness, I began using Ayer's Hair Vigor highly spoken of, I commenced using this preparation.
