Eleven Persons Killed by Falling Walls
From Coming in Contact with

One of the most terrible disasters that have occurred at Birmingham, Ala., in the history of the city, was the collapse of the Birmingham Hotel, which resulted in the death of eleven persons and the injury of many others.

While the masonry party was at work on the roof of the building, a heavy rain fell, which caused the masonry to become saturated and to lose its strength.

The cause of the fire is a mystery, but it is generally believed to have been accidental. The cause of the fire is a mystery, but it is generally believed to have been accidental.
