

MEET AND WALK AND TALK TOGETHER AGAIN.

National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic... The annual encampment of the National G. A. R. at St. Paul, was much of the same character as previous encampments.

The business session of the G. A. R. encampment at St. Paul, was held at night. Mayor Moran delivered an address of welcome.

Among the resolutions adopted were the following: Asking preference for the purchase of the land on which the points; urging congress to create of Hesterman's park.

No action was taken by either of the organizations looking towards a union, each preferring to remain independent.

The Green Mountain state declared for Josiah Gore Republican, for governor.

A special dispatch from Rome says that the monarch King Humbert will announce his abdication after the marriage of the Prince of Naples.

POPULAR SCIENCE.

At recent meeting of the Paris Academy of Sciences M. Blandin presented a memoir describing an analysis of a sample of rice over the 100,000 ft. It was the rice only slightly different in fat.

Though batteries are often blown out to sea, and have been thought of as an experiment to be tried on a different species to the ordinary land battery.

It is reported from Paris, where the matter is being investigated, that on some of the cable, that in consequence of the lessened shock the batteries the cost of repair has been reduced fifty per cent.

Three killed by a boiler explosion. The members of the St. Louis fire department were on duty at the factory of Herbert Lusk, near the city of St. Louis, Mo., on the morning of the 10th inst.

Mr. Lawrence guilty of murder. By deference to hours the jury in the case of Mr. Lawrence, charged in connection with Ray Coates, who is now serving a life sentence in the penitentiary at Indiana.

NEWS FOR MICHIGANERS. Ed. Redner, of Hubbardston, died from injuries received in a ball game on the 10th inst. at the residence of Grand River, Mich.

WORTH KNOWING.

The northern hemisphere is nearer to the sun on Dec. 11 than on June 21. It is turned from the sun in December and toward it in June.

According to the most careful computation, only one person in a hundred is over 100 years old.

The total population of the earth is estimated to be 2,214,000,000 annually, of whom 38,848,444 are born and 57,440,000 die.

Special Letters. The following is a list of letters to be published in the post-office at Birmingham, Mich., for the week ending September 5, 1896.

Mr. Ed. Williams, Frank Campbell. Please find enclosed for you of the above will please say "advertisements."

Mr. Ed. Williams, Frank Campbell. Please find enclosed for you of the above will please say "advertisements."

REAL ESTATE COLUMN.

The following is a list of letters to be published in the post-office at Birmingham, Mich., for the week ending September 5, 1896.

Mr. Ed. Williams, Frank Campbell. Please find enclosed for you of the above will please say "advertisements."

Mr. Ed. Williams, Frank Campbell. Please find enclosed for you of the above will please say "advertisements."

Mr. Ed. Williams, Frank Campbell. Please find enclosed for you of the above will please say "advertisements."

Mr. Ed. Williams, Frank Campbell. Please find enclosed for you of the above will please say "advertisements."

Mr. Ed. Williams, Frank Campbell. Please find enclosed for you of the above will please say "advertisements."

THE OLD SOLDIERS

MEET AND WALK AND TALK TOGETHER AGAIN.

National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic... The annual encampment of the National G. A. R. at St. Paul, was much of the same character as previous encampments.

The business session of the G. A. R. encampment at St. Paul, was held at night. Mayor Moran delivered an address of welcome.

Among the resolutions adopted were the following: Asking preference for the purchase of the land on which the points; urging congress to create of Hesterman's park.

No action was taken by either of the organizations looking towards a union, each preferring to remain independent.

The Green Mountain state declared for Josiah Gore Republican, for governor.

A special dispatch from Rome says that the monarch King Humbert will announce his abdication after the marriage of the Prince of Naples.

POPULAR SCIENCE.

At recent meeting of the Paris Academy of Sciences M. Blandin presented a memoir describing an analysis of a sample of rice over the 100,000 ft. It was the rice only slightly different in fat.

Though batteries are often blown out to sea, and have been thought of as an experiment to be tried on a different species to the ordinary land battery.

It is reported from Paris, where the matter is being investigated, that on some of the cable, that in consequence of the lessened shock the batteries the cost of repair has been reduced fifty per cent.

Three killed by a boiler explosion. The members of the St. Louis fire department were on duty at the factory of Herbert Lusk, near the city of St. Louis, Mo., on the morning of the 10th inst.

Mr. Lawrence guilty of murder. By deference to hours the jury in the case of Mr. Lawrence, charged in connection with Ray Coates, who is now serving a life sentence in the penitentiary at Indiana.

NEWS FOR MICHIGANERS. Ed. Redner, of Hubbardston, died from injuries received in a ball game on the 10th inst. at the residence of Grand River, Mich.

WORTH KNOWING.

The northern hemisphere is nearer to the sun on Dec. 11 than on June 21. It is turned from the sun in December and toward it in June.

According to the most careful computation, only one person in a hundred is over 100 years old.

The total population of the earth is estimated to be 2,214,000,000 annually, of whom 38,848,444 are born and 57,440,000 die.

Special Letters. The following is a list of letters to be published in the post-office at Birmingham, Mich., for the week ending September 5, 1896.

Mr. Ed. Williams, Frank Campbell. Please find enclosed for you of the above will please say "advertisements."

Mr. Ed. Williams, Frank Campbell. Please find enclosed for you of the above will please say "advertisements."

REAL ESTATE COLUMN.

The following is a list of letters to be published in the post-office at Birmingham, Mich., for the week ending September 5, 1896.

Mr. Ed. Williams, Frank Campbell. Please find enclosed for you of the above will please say "advertisements."

Mr. Ed. Williams, Frank Campbell. Please find enclosed for you of the above will please say "advertisements."

Mr. Ed. Williams, Frank Campbell. Please find enclosed for you of the above will please say "advertisements."

Mr. Ed. Williams, Frank Campbell. Please find enclosed for you of the above will please say "advertisements."

Mr. Ed. Williams, Frank Campbell. Please find enclosed for you of the above will please say "advertisements."