A large congregation was in attendance upon the Chautauqui Vesper Service Sunday evening at the M. E. church, and the sermon, by the pastor, pertaining to local literature was both profitable and enjoyable.

We have all heard of "Peck's Bad Boy," well, now we are going to talk of Peck's Corner, Pontiac, where there are no bad boys, but good goods. We introduced Mr. Peck, the proprietor of this establishment, to our readers several weeks ago. The goods to be found in this store are so varied we can only refer you to his new display and "line" under heading "Put me off at Peck's Corner." Be sure and find out all about the duplicate coupons given to each purchaser.

Every lady, whether fascinating or otherwise, needs and appreciates a "fascinator" and they have some winners at F. Blakeslee's. Why they are really "too" for anything. The prices are within the grasp of all and the articles themselves contain an immense amount of comfort for the size of them. This is no bluff. Frank's goods are the stuff.

Last Thursday evening Mrs. C. E. Mudge, Maple Ave., gave an enjoyable pedro party to about 20 of her friends. The 1st prize was won by Theron Smith, 2nd by Sam Mills and the 3rd by was carried away by Geo. Greer. "Daity" refreshments were served and the hours sped merrily by, almost too quickly, but "Time and tide wait for no man."

Contrary to reports now in circulation, Contra for Smith's goods, Mrs. S. W. Fuller's goods, have been perfectly satisfactory to the smart and discerning. He is a man who thoroughly understands his business.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church are making arrangements to have J. C. Wilcox, of Detroit, give a song recital here on Nov. 26. This will be a rare treat for our people as Mr. Wilcox is one of the finest contralto singers in Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell have very kindly consented to furnish the music for this musical event. Further announcements will be made next week.

Members of Birmingham, H. L. O. F. M., visited their sister Hive at Pontiac last Friday evening and were entertained by a most truly characteristic of Pontiac hospitality. A literary program of excellent merit was provided, followed by a request for the goods and the company, numbering about 225, made the walls of Mayors' parlour ring with the most vigorous of merriment.

Wm. H. Elliott, Woodward & Grand River, Detroit. BLANKETS AND COMFORTABLES.

Last week White Bros., of Pontiac did not materialize, spending a painter's tip, and the "new" shop, announced in our last column, were a great sight, but it yet will all really look for them this week, with all their right side up with us.

Miss Alice Chamberlain, of St. Louis, Mich., is calling upon her many friends in our village and stopping with her sister Mrs. D. N. Johnson. She expresses herself as quite pleased with the improvements made in our village, even during her short stay.

Will Cray was suffering from a neural paralysis last week, and for several days, his life was despaired of, but for the past few days he has been rapidly improving and, by attending physician, Dr. N. T. Shaw, promises him to get the same road to recovery.

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 17, there will be a Shadow School, given by the Gilbert Oak School, at the home of D. J. Ranney, two miles west of Birmingham. Everybody invited to come and have a jolly time for there will surely be no hot time in the country that night.

It is rumored that the City Bakery has been purchased by C. E. Greenwood of Troy, who will soon assume proprietorship. We shall miss the genial smile of Miss Edith, but the counter, where she has long been seen, as well as other members of the family family.

You don't need to look for the mammoth pictorial of the Mabley & Goodfield, Detroit, as it could be found in the dark. We will not attempt to tell you that boxes, cameras, all kinds of sporting goods, etc., are here, portatively. Yes, everything goes, even to the sewing machine.

Mrs. F. H. Sawyer, of Grand Rapids, will be here three days, stopping in Detroit, where she attended the State Unitarian conference, held in the Unitarian church of that city. Mrs. Sawyer reports a very interesting program, talented speakers from New York state and various parts of Michigan being present.

The arrangements of a hunter's life were so strong that one stable-mailed citizen Under Wirth, notwithstanding his first determination to remain at home, was persuaded to enlist in the hunters' army which he set sail from this port Monday afternoon. It is (thereby) possible it will be a detour expedition for the boys, we sincerely hope so.

Stanley Peddy has left mother and home to seek his fortune in the far west. Stan is one of our very best young-men and with the best of principles and a determination to succeed. We feel that his success is assured in every line of action he may decide upon. He has our best wishes with a host of other friends for his best welfare.
