Mr. and Mrs. Adison Uch, of Clarkston, Sundayed with Mrs. Uch's parents, John Lawrence and wife.

Mrs. Albert Mowell and Mrs. Hickson, of Pontiac, spent Sunday with their cousins, Alex. Peesje and wife.

A very large congregation was in attendance at the communion service in Troy church last Sunday. The pastor, Rev. A. H. Orr, may well feel encouraged with his large and attentive congregations.

Dr. Mather, of the Baptist Ministers' Home of Fenton, was here in the interests of that institution Sunday and delivered a very interesting sermon in the Baptist church of this place, on Sabbath morning.

Special service at the Methodist church next Sunday evening. The pastor will preach from the subject, "How ought we to Read?" All interested in the movement of clean literature are invited to attend.

A widow with two children, aged one and four years, respectively, desires a home with some family in the country. Can give good references. Wages not so much an object as a good home. Address Eccentric office.

One citizen approaching another asks this question: "Which is most fatal to the human family—the Klondike gold fever or the south?" The answer came quick: "Heads I gain, tails you lose." Exchange.

Miss Julia, a pupil of this place, and Miss May Watters, of Troy, who enlisted as Anti-Archer students this fall, Sundayed with their parents. The young ladies are gaining in avocations notwithstanding their close application to their studies.

Next Friday evening, Nov. 12, is the appointed time for the semi-annual election of V. P. S. C. E. officers, but on account of a resignation that date this meeting will be postponed one week, occurring Friday evening, Nov. 19. Members are urged to remember the date.

Chas. R. Hoffman had his best two razors stolen from his shop during a ten minutes' absence one day last week and his only consolation is that whoever becomes owner of the best one of the two will have the very best razor that ever was dropped. Poor consolation, "an Charlie!"

One hundred and seventy-one water takers are now supplied by our water works system, with the best water in the world for drinking and house use. Two hundred and eighteen taps have been made and it keeps Clark Campbell busy collecting in the water tax which is now due.

Mrs. Fannie J. Shan, Sec'y.

What you can buy at Spurling's! What can't you buy at Spurling's? Well, we'll give it up. This celebrated Detroit mercantile house is a summer for bargains. Just now Dress goods, of all qualities, shades, and patterns are going at your own prices, also other articles "too numerous to list." We are glad to welcome J. Spurling & Co. this week as advertisers and we would urge you all to give the new ad of your undivided attention.

The first lecture on the Epworth League course will be given this evening in the M. E. church, by Rev. Joshua Stansfield, pastor of Mary Palmer church, Detroit. Mr. Stansfield is a talented speaker and his chosen topic "The Hero of Babylon," exceedingly interesting. This lecture course is extensively advertised by a large display on last page of this paper. Carefully read it for full particulars regarding tickets, etc. Be sure and hear this instructive lecture. Come one! Come all.

The following hunters who enjoy winter hunting and like to shoot big game, will be up in the North Peninsula soon cracking away at caribou, elk, deer and moose, to say nothing of grizzlies, panthers, buffaloes, bison and such. W. B. Ewing and Ed. Daniels started yesterday, Thursday and go to Newberry, Mich., first and after that to Marquette Co. Monday next the following will leave for the same destination: Messrs. Eugene and Frank Brooks, John and George Purdy, Daniel Bassett, Charles Schaad, Cal. Ellenwood, Web Bray and last, but not the least, by any means, George Bingham, of Franklin. When a man is through his day's work and is sitting down resting at home, he cannot read the advertisements on the fence, and the handbills and circulars that were left on his doorstep have been blown away or destroyed. He calls for the paper and there he finds the merchant's announcement, and with nothing to bother him he reads it—Exchange.
