Some questions in history for our Birmingham High School students. Rev. W. J. Sheridan, Subject, "The Heroic Resurrection." De J. L. Campbell one day last week quietly and without much pain removed a troublesome small tumor from the back of the E. F. Haddock, and it was done so nicely that the doctor is attending to his other duties without any interruption at all.

The Birmingham Board will give a concert at Library Hall evening of March 12. A good program will be given with home and Detroit talent. Admission 15 cents. Everybody should attend out and help the boys.

Who says your town is booming? The water works is a fine example of the progress of our town. The water works is a fine example of the progress of our town.

The shipping of live stock is getting to be a matter of some importance. The Evans Bros., J. Allen, H. Spier and others thought in several instances of hope and cattle, also a few horses, were sent to the city.

On Tuesday last week Mr. W. H. Brummitt, of Pontiac, a well known photographer of that city, died while at Harper Hospital, Detroit, after he had given the idea of having an operation performed, but was so weak the physician would not make the attempt.

At the Regular Citizens' Council, held at Town Hall, Friday evening, March 3, there were nominated the following: President, A. W. Wilson; Secretary, J. H. Johnson; Treasurer, J. H. Johnson; Clerk, J. H. Johnson; Committee, J. H. Johnson.

Some shyster visited the power house of the electric road last week and turned on the power of an electric motor a point or two and when found, the car was trying to smash a hole through the rear wall of the building; and the wheels were playing a merry game round. Just suppose that car had been headed the other way.

The spring exhibition of the Detroit Water Color Society is now open to the public in the Museum of Art to remain accessible until March 15. The collection is very large and among the many paintings of interest of fame, we notice that Miss Alice Hagerman of our city exhibits "A Bit of the Lake," a work that gained her admission to this Society, and is pronounced by critics to be one of her best.

Our hand is progressing very finely under the leadership and direction of Prof. W. W. Stacy, of Detroit, Mich., who avers that the boys have the ability to do more than is generally supposed, and perseverance to become expert players. All those who have had their qualifications also have had their share of the same.

Any person who has a new subscription to THE BIRMINGHAM ECLECTIC will receive a copy of our paper free of charge. The subscription price is $1.00 per year in advance.

Trade at HUDSON'S and Save Money. The great selling capacity of "The Big Store" gives us first selections with the best and largest manufacturers. Sixteen stores in one means sixteen times the business of one ordinary store, therefore sixteen times more goods to buy.

WASH GOODS. Like a glimpse in the flower gardens of mid-summer is the unfolding of these dainty, flimsy, washable beauties given us by Fashion for woman's adornment and pleasure. The fancies of France, the colorings of Germany, the art of England and the genius of America in the most beautiful harmonies of the loom.

"The Big Store" can supply you every want at the minimum expense to YOU. And there's constant newness here. Inconstant selling makes constant buying. Our buyers are in the market every day so that trade here is sure to keep one in close fashion at her best—in her freshest attire.
