

FROM THE PEOPLE
The following is a list of the names of the members of the Birmingham Botanical Club for the year 1917. The names are arranged in alphabetical order. The names of the members who have died are marked with a cross.

W. H. Harris, Manager and Treasurer of the Birmingham Botanical Club, also President of the Botanical Club Association, was born in 1852. He was educated at the University of Alabama, and has spent most of his life in Birmingham. He is a member of the Alabama Botanical Club, and has been its president for several years. He is also a member of the American Botanical Society, and has been its president for several years. He is a well-known and respected member of the Birmingham Botanical Club, and has made many valuable contributions to the study of botany.

Alexander, The Great
A Birmingham Botanical Club member writes to the editor of the Birmingham Post-Herald, regarding the Birmingham Botanical Club's recent publication of the "Great Botanical Encyclopedia." The author expresses his appreciation for the club's efforts in publishing this comprehensive work, and notes that it is a valuable addition to the literature of botany. He also mentions that he has received many inquiries from other botanists regarding the encyclopedia, and that it is well-received in the botanical community.

The Monks in Detroit
Michigan People.
The monks in Detroit are reported to be in a state of great distress. They are suffering from a lack of food and shelter, and are being persecuted by the authorities. The monks are being forced to live in a small, dark, and damp cell, and are being subjected to harsh treatment. They are also being denied the right to practice their religion, and are being prevented from receiving visitors. The monks are pleading for help, and are asking the public to contribute to their relief. They are also asking for the release of their fellow monks who are being held in prison.

REAL ESTATE COLUMN
The following is a list of real estate transactions in Birmingham, Alabama, for the month of April, 1917. The transactions are arranged in alphabetical order by the name of the seller. The amount of the sale is given in dollars and cents.

W. H. Harris, Birmingham, Ala., sold to J. B. Smith, Birmingham, Ala., a lot of land in the city of Birmingham, for the sum of $10,000.00.

JOHN POUND.
Up Town, Near Court House, Pontiac, 1870
THE BEEHIVE.
"From the Record of our Past, comes the Triumph of our Present."
SPECIAL SALE!
OFF
For next week over 2,000 yards of 'seasonable' Spring Dress and Wash Goods and 1,000 yards of Art Decanting and Cretonnes. This lot of Dry Goods, including some of the choicest Dimities, Grass Linens, Spring Suitings, etc., that we can buy and place before the public, and they all go at 25 per cent off, from and including Tuesday, April 6, 1897, to and including Saturday April 10, 1897.

FRANKLIN PATTERSON.
Birmingham, Ala.
Mr. and Mrs. West are happy over a young son born to them on April 1st. The child weighs 10 lbs. and is named Charles. The mother is Mrs. West, and the father is Mr. West. The child is expected to be a healthy and happy one.

THE MONKS IN DETROIT
Michigan People.
The monks in Detroit are reported to be in a state of great distress. They are suffering from a lack of food and shelter, and are being persecuted by the authorities. The monks are being forced to live in a small, dark, and damp cell, and are being subjected to harsh treatment. They are also being denied the right to practice their religion, and are being prevented from receiving visitors. The monks are pleading for help, and are asking the public to contribute to their relief. They are also asking for the release of their fellow monks who are being held in prison.

REAL ESTATE COLUMN
The following is a list of real estate transactions in Birmingham, Alabama, for the month of April, 1917. The transactions are arranged in alphabetical order by the name of the seller. The amount of the sale is given in dollars and cents.

W. H. Harris, Birmingham, Ala., sold to J. B. Smith, Birmingham, Ala., a lot of land in the city of Birmingham, for the sum of $10,000.00.

JOHN POUND.
Up Town, Near Court House, Pontiac, 1870
THE BEEHIVE.
"From the Record of our Past, comes the Triumph of our Present."
SPECIAL SALE!
OFF
For next week over 2,000 yards of 'seasonable' Spring Dress and Wash Goods and 1,000 yards of Art Decanting and Cretonnes. This lot of Dry Goods, including some of the choicest Dimities, Grass Linens, Spring Suitings, etc., that we can buy and place before the public, and they all go at 25 per cent off, from and including Tuesday, April 6, 1897, to and including Saturday April 10, 1897.

FIVE DAYS ONLY.
No Reserve of these.
Come and secure your share of these mammoth bargains while they last and kindly tell your neighbors.
JOHN POUND.

FRANKLIN PATTERSON.
Birmingham, Ala.
Mr. and Mrs. West are happy over a young son born to them on April 1st. The child weighs 10 lbs. and is named Charles. The mother is Mrs. West, and the father is Mr. West. The child is expected to be a healthy and happy one.

THE MONKS IN DETROIT
Michigan People.
The monks in Detroit are reported to be in a state of great distress. They are suffering from a lack of food and shelter, and are being persecuted by the authorities. The monks are being forced to live in a small, dark, and damp cell, and are being subjected to harsh treatment. They are also being denied the right to practice their religion, and are being prevented from receiving visitors. The monks are pleading for help, and are asking the public to contribute to their relief. They are also asking for the release of their fellow monks who are being held in prison.

REAL ESTATE COLUMN
The following is a list of real estate transactions in Birmingham, Alabama, for the month of April, 1917. The transactions are arranged in alphabetical order by the name of the seller. The amount of the sale is given in dollars and cents.

W. H. Harris, Birmingham, Ala., sold to J. B. Smith, Birmingham, Ala., a lot of land in the city of Birmingham, for the sum of $10,000.00.

JOHN POUND.
Up Town, Near Court House, Pontiac, 1870
THE BEEHIVE.
"From the Record of our Past, comes the Triumph of our Present."
SPECIAL SALE!
OFF
For next week over 2,000 yards of 'seasonable' Spring Dress and Wash Goods and 1,000 yards of Art Decanting and Cretonnes. This lot of Dry Goods, including some of the choicest Dimities, Grass Linens, Spring Suitings, etc., that we can buy and place before the public, and they all go at 25 per cent off, from and including Tuesday, April 6, 1897, to and including Saturday April 10, 1897.

FIVE DAYS ONLY.
No Reserve of these.
Come and secure your share of these mammoth bargains while they last and kindly tell your neighbors.
JOHN POUND.

FRANKLIN PATTERSON.
Birmingham, Ala.
Mr. and Mrs. West are happy over a young son born to them on April 1st. The child weighs 10 lbs. and is named Charles. The mother is Mrs. West, and the father is Mr. West. The child is expected to be a healthy and happy one.

THE MONKS IN DETROIT
Michigan People.
The monks in Detroit are reported to be in a state of great distress. They are suffering from a lack of food and shelter, and are being persecuted by the authorities. The monks are being forced to live in a small, dark, and damp cell, and are being subjected to harsh treatment. They are also being denied the right to practice their religion, and are being prevented from receiving visitors. The monks are pleading for help, and are asking the public to contribute to their relief. They are also asking for the release of their fellow monks who are being held in prison.

REAL ESTATE COLUMN
The following is a list of real estate transactions in Birmingham, Alabama, for the month of April, 1917. The transactions are arranged in alphabetical order by the name of the seller. The amount of the sale is given in dollars and cents.

W. H. Harris, Birmingham, Ala., sold to J. B. Smith, Birmingham, Ala., a lot of land in the city of Birmingham, for the sum of $10,000.00.

JOHN POUND.
Up Town, Near Court House, Pontiac, 1870
THE BEEHIVE.
"From the Record of our Past, comes the Triumph of our Present."
SPECIAL SALE!
OFF
For next week over 2,000 yards of 'seasonable' Spring Dress and Wash Goods and 1,000 yards of Art Decanting and Cretonnes. This lot of Dry Goods, including some of the choicest Dimities, Grass Linens, Spring Suitings, etc., that we can buy and place before the public, and they all go at 25 per cent off, from and including Tuesday, April 6, 1897, to and including Saturday April 10, 1897.

FIVE DAYS ONLY.
No Reserve of these.
Come and secure your share of these mammoth bargains while they last and kindly tell your neighbors.
JOHN POUND.

FRANKLIN PATTERSON.
Birmingham, Ala.
Mr. and Mrs. West are happy over a young son born to them on April 1st. The child weighs 10 lbs. and is named Charles. The mother is Mrs. West, and the father is Mr. West. The child is expected to be a healthy and happy one.

THE MONKS IN DETROIT
Michigan People.
The monks in Detroit are reported to be in a state of great distress. They are suffering from a lack of food and shelter, and are being persecuted by the authorities. The monks are being forced to live in a small, dark, and damp cell, and are being subjected to harsh treatment. They are also being denied the right to practice their religion, and are being prevented from receiving visitors. The monks are pleading for help, and are asking the public to contribute to their relief. They are also asking for the release of their fellow monks who are being held in prison.

REAL ESTATE COLUMN
The following is a list of real estate transactions in Birmingham, Alabama, for the month of April, 1917. The transactions are arranged in alphabetical order by the name of the seller. The amount of the sale is given in dollars and cents.

W. H. Harris, Birmingham, Ala., sold to J. B. Smith, Birmingham, Ala., a lot of land in the city of Birmingham, for the sum of $10,000.00.

JOHN POUND.
Up Town, Near Court House, Pontiac, 1870
THE BEEHIVE.
"From the Record of our Past, comes the Triumph of our Present."
SPECIAL SALE!
OFF
For next week over 2,000 yards of 'seasonable' Spring Dress and Wash Goods and 1,000 yards of Art Decanting and Cretonnes. This lot of Dry Goods, including some of the choicest Dimities, Grass Linens, Spring Suitings, etc., that we can buy and place before the public, and they all go at 25 per cent off, from and including Tuesday, April 6, 1897, to and including Saturday April 10, 1897.

FIVE DAYS ONLY.
No Reserve of these.
Come and secure your share of these mammoth bargains while they last and kindly tell your neighbors.
JOHN POUND.

FRANKLIN PATTERSON.
Birmingham, Ala.
Mr. and Mrs. West are happy over a young son born to them on April 1st. The child weighs 10 lbs. and is named Charles. The mother is Mrs. West, and the father is Mr. West. The child is expected to be a healthy and happy one.

THE MONKS IN DETROIT
Michigan People.
The monks in Detroit are reported to be in a state of great distress. They are suffering from a lack of food and shelter, and are being persecuted by the authorities. The monks are being forced to live in a small, dark, and damp cell, and are being subjected to harsh treatment. They are also being denied the right to practice their religion, and are being prevented from receiving visitors. The monks are pleading for help, and are asking the public to contribute to their relief. They are also asking for the release of their fellow monks who are being held in prison.

REAL ESTATE COLUMN
The following is a list of real estate transactions in Birmingham, Alabama, for the month of April, 1917. The transactions are arranged in alphabetical order by the name of the seller. The amount of the sale is given in dollars and cents.

W. H. Harris, Birmingham, Ala., sold to J. B. Smith, Birmingham, Ala., a lot of land in the city of Birmingham, for the sum of $10,000.00.

JOHN POUND.
Up Town, Near Court House, Pontiac, 1870
THE BEEHIVE.
"From the Record of our Past, comes the Triumph of our Present."
SPECIAL SALE!
OFF
For next week over 2,000 yards of 'seasonable' Spring Dress and Wash Goods and 1,000 yards of Art Decanting and Cretonnes. This lot of Dry Goods, including some of the choicest Dimities, Grass Linens, Spring Suitings, etc., that we can buy and place before the public, and they all go at 25 per cent off, from and including Tuesday, April 6, 1897, to and including Saturday April 10, 1897.

FIVE DAYS ONLY.
No Reserve of these.
Come and secure your share of these mammoth bargains while they last and kindly tell your neighbors.
JOHN POUND.

FRANKLIN PATTERSON.
Birmingham, Ala.
Mr. and Mrs. West are happy over a young son born to them on April 1st. The child weighs 10 lbs. and is named Charles. The mother is Mrs. West, and the father is Mr. West. The child is expected to be a healthy and happy one.

THE MONKS IN DETROIT
Michigan People.
The monks in Detroit are reported to be in a state of great distress. They are suffering from a lack of food and shelter, and are being persecuted by the authorities. The monks are being forced to live in a small, dark, and damp cell, and are being subjected to harsh treatment. They are also being denied the right to practice their religion, and are being prevented from receiving visitors. The monks are pleading for help, and are asking the public to contribute to their relief. They are also asking for the release of their fellow monks who are being held in prison.

REAL ESTATE COLUMN
The following is a list of real estate transactions in Birmingham, Alabama, for the month of April, 1917. The transactions are arranged in alphabetical order by the name of the seller. The amount of the sale is given in dollars and cents.

W. H. Harris, Birmingham, Ala., sold to J. B. Smith, Birmingham, Ala., a lot of land in the city of Birmingham, for the sum of $10,000.00.

JOHN POUND.
Up Town, Near Court House, Pontiac, 1870
THE BEEHIVE.
"From the Record of our Past, comes the Triumph of our Present."
SPECIAL SALE!
OFF
For next week over 2,000 yards of 'seasonable' Spring Dress and Wash Goods and 1,000 yards of Art Decanting and Cretonnes. This lot of Dry Goods, including some of the choicest Dimities, Grass Linens, Spring Suitings, etc., that we can buy and place before the public, and they all go at 25 per cent off, from and including Tuesday, April 6, 1897, to and including Saturday April 10, 1897.

FIVE DAYS ONLY.
No Reserve of these.
Come and secure your share of these mammoth bargains while they last and kindly tell your neighbors.
JOHN POUND.