Lawless are they that make their wills their law.—Shakespeare.

Hypocrisy is the homage which vice pays virtue.—La Rochefoucauld.

Music makes people milder and gentler, more moral and more reasonable.—Luther.

He who reigns within himself, and rules passions, desires and fears, is more than a king.—Milton.

Understand men, bear with them, allow for them, love them, and conquer them by love.—Bishop Thirwld.

One hour a day persistently devoted to one thing, like a small seed, will yield a large increase at the year's end. —John Stuart Blackie.

One may find grandeur and consolation in a star; it night without caring to ask what it means, save grandeur and consolation.—Mrs. Humphrey Ward.

Better lead a crowd than follow it. It is an easy matter to lose individualism in the throng that pushes and drives everybody.—Richard Johnston.

Before thou reprehend another, take heed that thou art not culpable in what thou point about, lest that cleanses with blotted fingers makes a greater blur.—Quarles.

I will never believe that a man has a real love for the good and beautiful, except in so far as he has the disgusting the moment he sees it.—Charles Kingsley.

Surely life, if it be not long, is tedious, since we are forced to call in the assistance of so many trifles to rid us of our time, of that time which can never return.—Johnson.

I take it to be the highest instance of a noble mind, to bear great qualities without discovering the in, a pride behavior any consciousness that he is superior to the rest of the world.—Steele.

In peace patriotism really consists only in this, that everyone sweeps before his door, minds his own business, also learns his own lesson, that it may be well with him in his own house.—Goethe.

All the strength a man possesses has come from the struggle he has conquered and the obstacles he has overcome. It is the difficult lesson that yields the largest return and measures the largest growth.—Rev. S. L. Batten.

The World owes a debt unpayable of reverence and gratitude for the obscure fidelity, the unchronicled sacrifice, the silent and steady toil which had no other inducement than a sense of duty and the reward of an approving conscience.—Dr. Charles A. Berry.

I consider a human soul without education like marble in the quarry, which shows none of the inherent beauties until the skill of the statuary has drawn out the colors, makes the surface shine, and discovers every ornamental cloud, spot, and vein that runs through the body of it.—Addison.

Accomplishments may please, beauty may charm, fluency and grace may attract, but to win confidence and respect, to be trusted and relied upon, the man of the woman must be stable in character, self-poised, true to promises committed, igiting firmness to geniality and steadfastness to good nature.—Dr. W. C. Smith.

SCRAPS.

From Michigan to Tennessee.

For some months the management of the Wolverine Press Association has had under advisement the expediency of running an excursion from Cincinnati, Ohio, to Nashville, Tennessee, on account of the Centennial and International Exposition which will be formally opened the first of next month. For a time it appeared unpracticable, but, thanks to the untiring efforts of the manager, W. H. Marvin, of the Utica Sentinel, the details of the trip have all been satisfactorily arranged, and Tuesday, May 11, selected to make the journey.

The railroads running into Cincinnati from Michigan, have offered to grant transportation in consideration of advertising to all assigned Michigan publishers. The roads are the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, the Cincinnati, Jackson & Mackinaw and the Big Four Routes, the last named road enabling Southwestern Michigan publishers to get to Cincinnati in fine shape from Benton Harbor, Niles, etc.

For members of the craft representing the central part of the state the C., J. & M. affords unequalled facilities, makes excellent connections with trains on other lines at Jackson, also at points west and east on the Michigan division. From Addison Junction passengers can arrive at Cincinnati either on the evening of the 10th or morning of the 11th inst., and join other members of the party at the Palace Hotel, which will be the headquarters of the Association while in the Queen City.

Leaving during the forenoon, the party will pass over the line of the Louisville & Nashville railroad company, which affords about the best possible view of "old Kentucky." (the writer has crossed the state in four different directions) stopping at Bowling Green and Cave City, Mammoth Cave, Glasgow Junction and Gallatin, thence through a rougher portion of the state into Tennessee, and, arrive at Nashville in time for supper.

After taking in the beauties of the Exposition and city, such of the members of the party as wish to do so will take a train on the Nashville, Nashville & St. Louis Railway at 7 o'clock Friday afternoon, for historic Chattanooga, arriving there during the early evening of the same day. There the party will disband, each member taking the privilege of returning by one or other of two days from the time of starting.

The usual press courtesies will be extended by the management of the Exposition, reduced rates have been secured at suitable hotels, also with managers of local transportation companies and collectively the management of the Wolverine Press Association believe that in the proposed excursion it offers the maximum advantage for the minimum expense. Each position, railroad and city officials alike co-operate in our interests, and no Wolverine of interior whose purpose is to keep in touch with the progress of the times and promote the dignity of his profession should fail to avail himself of the unprecedented privileges.

The officers of the Association are as follows:

President—A. J. Hempleton, Addison Courier.

Vice Pres.—W. H. Arthur, Marshall Statesman.

Mgr. and Treas.—W. H. Marvin, Utica Sentinel.

Sec.-Com.—A. Whitehead, Birmingham Eccentric; F. E. Nellis, Mt. Clemens Monitor; S. J. Tomlinson, Pontiac Gazette.

Ex-Officio—W. H. Marvin and Al. J. Kempton.

Those who are not engaged as publishers can accompany the party as far as Nashville by buying an excursion ticket and forwarding $12 to the treasurer who will entitle them to reduced rates at hotels.

LOCAL OAK ITEMS.

MONEY ORDERS.

Money Orders and Travelers' Cheques of the Adams, American, United States, Canadian Pacific, Dominion, Great Northern, National, Northern Pacific, Southern, United States, Wells Fargo and all Western Express Companies will be issued at the Pontiac Exchange Bank. Agent for the NATIONAL EXPRESS COMPANY.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfils every wish in curing pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effect following use of liquor, wine, beer, cider, or tea. Invalids, as well as those in health, may have a bottle sent free by mail, also pamphlet. The Extraordinary and send your full post office address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this paper, guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

REAL ESTATE COLUMN.

The Following Choice Parcels of Land Are for Sale in the Real Estate Department of the Birmingham Exchange Bank, Mich., Where All Inquiries Will Be Cheerfully Answered.

LOT 1.

Four and one-third acres of land in the south east corner of the village of Birmingham, with a frontage on Woodward avenue, of 800 feet. Good house, cellar, barn and well. Land is all ready to make some one a comfortable home with a choice location and one of the most desirable in the village. Electric railway is now in front of the property and will run several hours. You cannot help making money on this piece of land if you buy it. Price and terms easy.

LOT 2.

Farm of 78 acres straight west of Birmingham. All slow land and some better, being a sandy loam. Good house, barn and other interior houses. Fine orchard. Price $65 per acre. Owner has other business and will sell on terms and long time. There is no better location in the county for a farm and any inferior having been sold in the immediate vicinity during the past two years for nearly double this price.

LOT 3.

A farm of one hundred acres within a mile and a half of the new Electric Railway. Many acres cleared and twenty in timber. Two houses and interior houses in good repair. Price $1,200. Four acres of orchard all grafted fruit. Two acres choice strawberries and abundance of excellent water. Soil, a rich clay loam and very productive. Owner has other business and will sell on terms and long time. The neighborhood has been sold for nearly double the price asked for this piece, but owner is unwilling to be worried about it.

LOT 4.

We have had placed in our hands for sale one of the beautiful homes our pretty village is noted for. This place is handsomely located, shaded to perfection, has large grounds, has an large roomy house, all bedrooms with closets, good cellar, furnace, boiler, outside stream of good water running through the height of land, 2 acres of the finest farm grading and stock raising that could be desired. Sold by J. McVittie & Sons. Price $5,000. Terms easy.

LOT 5.

A farm of 65 acres, with one and one-half miles of the village of Birmingham, in the township of Troy. Fifty-six acres cleared, three acres excellent orchard, balance timber. Soil sandy loam, loamy soil, 30 acres timber, brush and maple. A new orchard free, fenced, and never sprayed. Owner has other business and will sell for cash at the remarkably low figure of $2,000, or will exchange for a small farm. At one time this soil had the largest percentage in the county and a lasting young man could soon bring it back to its former prestige and make it a valuable piece of investment. It is worth looking into a little and we will gladly answer all inquiries.

LOT 13.

Twenty acres of land adjacent to the little village of Big Beaver and about six miles from the village of Birmingham, with good barn $4.00. Land all new and fresh and everything ready for a man who would like a small farm to keep a few cows, chickens, etc. Price $50 per acre. Terms cash.

LOT 14.

Here's a chance for some one to make a little fortune in Birmingham acreage—and that's what they are all doing after just now, too. Sixteen acres bounded on the south by Harmon street, two miles from the electric railroad power plant is about to be erected, and on the west by Cemetery road, a good street running north to intersect with highway avenue. Some of the finest building lots in Birmingham in the immediate vicinity. The price now is $5,000 but we will not promise to hold at that figure 6 days from this date, that is, 1895. This is, without a doubt, the cheapest 16 acres in the village. A copy of the plat extends throughout the land and we will be willing to the way of platting the entire tract into front of waste land on it. Look it over and see what you can about it—that's what we are here for.

What better farming country could be found than the immediate vicinity of Birmingham? Where could you find a better location for a good easy road to market? Where is it, right here in the midst of the richest farming land in the state of Michigan, where you will be sure to get more for the seller's money than it is said for at any other place in the state? The lowest cash price is $8,000 and payments of $1,000 or more down on a subdivided half interest, free and clear for $4,000. Or, we will sell the entire property consists of nine acres of corners of the Geo. D. Scott farm, with a fine orchard, cellar, barn and one-half acres and abundant water power, for $8,000 cash
