How the Chinese Do Things. Everything relating to the Orient is of interest to the "Chinee" do everything backward. They exactly reverse the usual order of civilization. The first thing that the Chinese do is to wash their faces. They do not wash their faces until the last thing they do. The men wear skirts and the women trousers. The men carry on dress-making and the women carry on tailoring. The Chinese language is not written, and the written language is not spoken. The Chinese read backward and what we call foot-notes are inserted in the top of the page. The Chinese arrange things first in order of last. The Chinese take their own hands instead of the hands of other people. The Chinese dress in white at funerals, and in mourning of widows, while all other women always wear black. The Chinese launch their vessels and admit their horses from the side. The Chinese begin dinner with dessert, and end with soup and fish. Chinese Toys. With care, and with a little money, you can buy a great many toys from China. The toys are of various kinds, and are of great interest to the children of the West. The toys are of various kinds, and are of great interest to the children of the West. The toys are of various kinds, and are of great interest to the children of the West.

"SHE DRESSES WELL."

But Her Clothes Often Cover a Living Debt.

Beauty is the shrine of Men's Worship, and Women Vie with Each Other in the Attainment of It. The remark, "She dresses elegantly," is a very common one in this age of wealth and progress. Women vie with each other in making themselves attractive, for men admire a woman who is stylishly dressed woman. Good clothes add to the charms of the woman in the eyes of the man, but they do not add to the charms of the woman in the eyes of the man. The woman who is stylishly dressed woman, but they do not add to the charms of the woman in the eyes of the man. The woman who is stylishly dressed woman, but they do not add to the charms of the woman in the eyes of the man.
